VESSELS SHOULD NOT BE FREE FROM TOLLS

U. S. Commissioner Advocates Tolls for Coast-Wise Trade

SHIP OWNERS BENEFIT

Declares Free Tolls Would Help Ship Owners And Not Those That Need Help

HOPES FOR MERCHANT MARINE

PHILADELPHIA, JAN. 25.—Prof. Emory R. Johnson, special commissioner of the United States on Panama traffic and tolls, in an address here tonight declared that the owners of vessels in the coast-wise trade will derive greater benefit from the Panama canal than the owners of any other vessels, that double the rate fixed by the president would not prevent coast-wise carriers from using the waterway and that "in view of these facts it seems just that those who derive immediate benefit from the use of the canal should pay reasonable tolls."

Prof. Johnson, who spoke before the American Academy of Political and Social Science, studied the question of canal tolls for the government before President Taft fixed the rate. Leading up to his conclusion that coast-wise vessels should not be exempted from tolls, Prof. Johnson said the canal should be made commercially self-supporting, and continued:

Benefit to Ship Owners.

"Ninety-nine shippers out of a hundred will pay the same freight rates between the two seaboards whether there be tolls or no tolls charged the individuals or corporations who own and operate coast-wise vessels. It will be only the exceptionally large producers and traders who ship in full vessel loads that will secure lower transportation rates because of toll exemption.

"The owners of coast-wise ships have been relieved from the payment of tolls for the purpose of aiding the merchant marine under the American flag. The public funds, however, will go to ship owners that need no aid and not to the owners of the American vessels that serve our foreign trade, vessels that need assistance.

For American Merchant Marine.

"There are reasons why the United States might well seek to have a strong line of vessels under the American flag running from the west coast of the United States by way of Hawaii, Japan and China to the Philippines. It would be desirable to have an equally strong line out to Australia from our west coast; to have a line from the Atlantic and Gulf ports down the east coast of South America to Buenos Ayres, and another through the Panama canal down the west coast of South America.

"If we are to give the owners of American ships $20,000 during the next ten years the funds had better go to build up such lines as have been mentioned instead of being given to the owners of the coast-wise ships."

BANK CLERK ADMITS THEFT.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 25.—Amos Regeant, receiving teller of the Pioneer State bank and son of a director of the institution, confessed today that he stole $1,910 in cash from the vaults of the bank Wednesday afternoon. He says he began taking the bank's funds early in December, to pay for clothing for himself and Christmas presents for his family and friends. He finally stole the money from the bank Wednesday, he says, in order to cover the shortage in his accounts resulting from the earlier thefts.

CHICAGO FRATERNITIES FIGHT FOR EXISTENCE

HIGH SCHOOL SOCIETIES MAY TAKE LEGAL STEPS AT ONCE

Seek to Compel School Authorities to Rescind Suspensions of Students Dropped Because of Membership in Secret Societies.

CHICAGO, JAN. 25.—The endeavor of the high school fraternities and sororities to maintain themselves here in spite of the ban placed on them by the board of education is to take the form of legal steps to compel the school authorities to rescind suspensions of students dropped because of connection with the secret societies. It was announced today by high schol graduates who are in business here that they will take up the battle on behalf of students in their former schools.

Sorority and fraternity dances have been frequent recently in defiance of the orders of the educators. Last night during an elaborate initiation into the Delta Sigma Upsilon high school fraternity, four novices disguised and with their faces painted were arrested in a downtown business street.

An attempt was made today by a committee of four high school alumni headed by W. E. Vette to see Superintendent of Schools Ella Flagg Young and lay the case of the fraternities before her. Miss Young refused to grant an audience to the delegation.

"Membership in high school fraternity is of great use to a graduate," said Mr. Vette. "Some of the fraternity men have fathers high in the business world and they are glad to help to good positions their sons' fraternity brothers. The board of education would deprive us of that help.

"Every student expelled because of his connection with fraternities will be reinstated," Mr. Vette added. "The father of one of the expelled students is a prominent corporation lawyer and he has promised to take the fight to the supreme court if necessary. We are assured that the board of education has exceeded its authority."

ATTEMPT TO OVERCOME DETERIORATION OF IRRIGATED LANDS

Government is Working to Overcome Dangers Confronting Irrigated Land Farming.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Deterioration of irrigated lands in the west has resulted in efforts by the government to overcome what threatens to be a serious danger to all of the lands embraced in the government's immense irrigation projects. Dr. B. T. Galloway, chief of the bureau of plant industry, in testimony that became public today, stated that the department of agriculture is working hard to overcome the recognized dangers confronting farming on irrigated lands.

Dr. Galloway's testimony was given before the house committee on expenditures in the agricultural department. He said the department hoped to be able to put irrigated farming upon a firm basis for the future. The danger lies not only in the alkali in the soils of irrigated lands, which washes down into other land, but also in what the experts term as the "wearing out" of the saturation.

JAILED TWICE IN ONE DAY FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT

Man is Sent to Jail and Wife Fined When Couple Fail to Bring Child Into Court.

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 25.—For the second time Henry Sorenson was sent to jail for contempt to day, and his wife, Dorata was fined $10 for failing to produce in court, Alice Greenleaf, aged 13 years, whom the couple brought here from Los Angeles about seven years ago. The child's mother, Mrs. Alice Hollingsworth, only recently heard of the child's whereabouts and has brought suit for her possession. Two weeks ago the girl disappeared. Later habeas corpus suit was brought. Sorenson was sent to jail for five days and his wife was fined when they failed to produce the girl. The same punishment was meted to day and next Saturday was set for bringing little Alice into Court. Mrs. Sorenson asked to go to jail to day in place of paying the fine.

The Sorensons say the have no knowledge of where the child may be.

OFFICIALS DISCUSS ALFONSO'S PROPOSED VISIT

Washington, Jan. 25.—Some speculation is being indulged in by the state department officials concerning the reported desire of King Alfonso of Spain to visit the United States but nothing official has been heard on the subject. No plans for the entertainment of Kings and emboided by the fathers in the constituton and a veteran diplomat pointed out to day that one drawback to such a visit would be that the president of the United States could not repay it as he cannot leave the country during his term of office.

GOV. CAREY DENIES MASON'S REQUISTION.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan. 25.—Governor Carey this afternoon denied the requistion of Governor Glassock of West Virginia for E. A. Mason, representative in the Wyoming legislature, wanted in West Virginia in connection with alleged misappropriation of school funds.

BALKAN DELEGATES DISCUSS SITUATION

Ambassadors And Envoys Talk Over Occurrence in Constantinople

AWAIT FOR INSTRUCTIONS

Plenipotentiaries Await Full Powers From Governments to End Negotiations

GREEKS ARE STILL FIGHTING

LONDON, JAN. 25—Both the ambassadors and the Balkan plenipotentiaries held meetings today and discussed academically the Balkan situation and the occurrences in Constantinople. The plenipotentiaries are awaiting instructions. As yet the Servians and Montenegrins have not received from their governments full powers, which Dr. Daneff and Premier Venizelos already possess to break the negotiations. M. Novakovitch has proposed to make the Turks understand that the war indemnity asked by the allies will be increased proportionately to the delay in concluding peace. It is expected that by Sunday all the allies will have received authorization from their respective governments to end the negotiations on their own initiative but faithful to promise made to the ambassadors they will not use this prerogative until the reply to the powers' note has been received from the new Turkish government.

The Greeks meanwhile are pushing their military operations in Epirus. The army numbering 50,000 is advancing against Janina in a semi-circle. The Greeks have been fighting for five days consecutively. The siege is most difficult owing to the mountainous nature of the district and the very narrow passes, which are strongly fortified. The operations have been rendered still more difficult by stormy weather. If the war is resumed in the next week the allies have agreed that the offensive shall be taken by the combined Bulgarian, Greek and Servian forces against both Adrianople and Tchatalja. The Servians will detach somes of their troops to help the Montenegrins take Scutari. A Greek project is under examination aiming to land troops in the gulf of Saros and occupy Gallipoli.

This will give to the allies, control of the Turkish fortifications in the Dardanelles, enabling the Greek fleet to enter the Sea Marmora and threaten Constantinople.

Await Decision of Powers.

All this and similar projects are subordinate to the decision of the powers and events in Constantinople where, many consider a military counter-revolution is inevitable within a short time.

What the allies desire is not to be accused of having precipitated matters. Their terms were presented at the sitting of the peace conference December 23rd and the Turkish delegates have not changed their terms. They have been simply waiting. But patience has a limit, they say, like the resources of their countries, which are heavily taxed by Turkish procrastination. When all means are exhausted for a peaceful settlement, the allies declare, the war will be resumed and conducted. Dr. Daneff head of the Bulgarian delegation said tonight:

"The best proof of our magnaniminity towards Turkey is that we are still here while events in Constantinople are an eloquent and undeniable indication of what the Turkish reply to the note of the powers will be. After that, we might with considerable advantage for us have resumed hostilities, but we prefer to be generous and do not wish to be accused of rash action or disregard for the desires of Europe.

Part of Army Backs Young Turks.

Vienna, Jan. 25.—Advices from Constantinople say that the Young Turk party thus far is backed only by part of the army; that a majority of the army including the older officers in high positions, and a majority of the influential clergy are against the Young Turks. Enver Bey's following, adds the despatch, consists of several hundred officers infatuated by the cry of "liberations of sacred places" and these very men are likely to turn against the Young Turks if they do not succeed in saving Adrianople.

Will Be Given Time.

Berlin, Jan. 26.—In view of the suddenness of the change in the situation in Turkey official circles here believe the new administration should take time to work out the answer to the powers.

It is understood the Balkan officials hold the same view and will not crowd the young Turks. Regarding reports from France of a proposed naval demonstration it is believed that they are not authorized by the French government and the opinion is expressed that there is no liklihood that the consent of all the powers could be obtained for such action.

Downpour Halts Attack.

Athens, Jan. 25.—After a heavy downpour which lasted sixty hours the weather improved today enabling the Greeks under the Crown Prince to renew their attack on Bizani,, the key to Janina. The Turks in Fort St. Nicholas have been reinforced and are making a desperate resistence. They have suffered heavy losses.

Corn to Montenegrins.

Cettinje, Jan. 25.—The Russian emperor has presented 2,000,000 kilograms of corn to the Montenegrin people. The corn was brought to Antivary by steamer. It will go far to relieve the distress caused by the war.

Will Not Mobilize.

Burchest, Jan. 26.—Rumania has decided not to mobilize her army. A cabinet council at which King Charles and the crown prince were present reached this decision today.

WON'T DISMISS "BATH TUB TRUST" SUIT

PRESIDENT TAFT DECLINES TO DISMISS ANTI-TRUST SUIT

Civil Suit Recently Decided in Favor of the Government Will be Retried in Detroit on February 3.

WASHINGTON, JAN. 25.—President Taft today refused to dismiss the criminal anti-trust suit against the so-called "bathtub trust." He was determined not to terminate the proceedings already started, on the ground that the combination had been dissolved.

The president stood squarely behind Attorney General Wickersham and Edwin P. Grosvner, special assistant to the attorney general, in immediate charge of the case who previously declined to consent to quashing the proceedings. The attorney general has been constant in holding his determination to re-try the case before Judge Sessions at Detroit, Feb. 3. He will accept no pleas on behalf of the defendants, it is said, except pleas of guilty. An appeal from the attorney general's decision was taken to the president.

The combination complained of in the indictments it was pointed out had been terminated in January, 1911, shortly after the indictments were returned. The president, however, sustained the department of justice view that the defendants should be tried, nevertheless on the charges preferred. The civil suit against the alleged trust recently was decided by the supreme court in favor of the government.

JUDGE REFUSES TO SET ASIDE DIVORCE GRANTED PERCY PROCTOR

Judge Woodmansee Holds That no Sufficient Grounds For Re-hearing Have Been Shown.

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 25.—Common pleas Judge Woodmansee refused today to set aside the divorce granted last year to Percy Proctor, a wealthy Cincinnati manufacturer, from Nadine Proctor, formerly the Baroness Von Klifuss.

The baroness sought to set aside the divorce decree on the double ground that she was unable to attend the hearing last April because she was a passenger on the ill-fated Titanic and because of newly discovered evidence. In dismissing her petition today, Judge Woodmansee held that no sufficient grounds for a re-hearing had been shown before him. According to her attorney the baroness is ill in New York city and was unable to appear at the hearing today.

SPECTACULAR REAR END COLLISION OF ELEVATED TRAINS IN NEW YORK

Policeman is Killed by Deadly Third Rail and Many are Injured

New York, Jan. 25.—Patrolman J. M. Gleason was killed and thirteen other persons injured late this afternoon in a spectacular rear-end collision between two southbound, Third avenue elevated trains. Both trains took fire and for a time it was feared they would topple into the street. The injured were got out with much difficulty while the panic stricken uninjured made their arduous way over the ties to the nearest station.

Railroad officers believe Gleason died performing his duty. He went to the aid of injured persons, they think and in trying to help a passenger who was in a dangerous situation forgot the third rail and stepped upon it. The soles of Gleason's feet were burned.

The police after hearing stories of witnesses arrested Michael, motorman of the second train. Hearn is in a hospital. His car was telescoped by its impact with the train ahead.

RAILROADS PREPARE FOR HEAVY TRAVEL.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Railroads in all parts of the country are preparing for the heavy travel to the nations capital for the inauguraton of the First Democratic president since Grover Cleveland became president the second time. Several railway companies have filed their excursion rate tariffs with the interstate commerce commission for approval.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—Charles Ward, was held to the federal grand jury to day charged with using the mails to secure money from Mrs. John Kelly of Peoria, Ill., Ward is alleged to have impersonated Mrs. Kelley's son Joseph in the letters in which he said to have asked money, declaring himself to be in trouble.

WARRANT ISSUED FOR AGED GEN. SYCKLES

General Now Awaits Arrest at Fifth Avenue Home in New York

ACCOUNTS ARE SHORT

Suit is Brought By State to Recover $23,476 for Which He Failed to Account

VETERAN OF THE CIVIL WAR

NEW YORK, JAN. 25.—General Daniel E. Syckles sat amid the war relics in his Fifth avenue home tonight expecting momentary arrest in a suit brought by the state to recover $23,676 for which he has failed to account, it is charged as chairman of New York monuments commission. Within his call were his son Stanton, and an aged negro retainer. Save from them he was alone. The order for the veterans answer was issued this afternoon by Supreme Court Justice Rudd of Albany and a copy of the order and of the complaint was placed in Sheriff Harburgers hands this evening by Deputy Attorney General Francis Kennedy who brought them here. Mr. Kennedy announced his intention of asking for immediate service. After a talk with Mr. Kennedy, however, Sheriff Harburger said he would give the documents to his lawyer to determine whether they are properly drawn. This he thought would give the general respite from arrest until Monday. The order cannot legally be served on Sunday. Unless General Syckles is prepared to furnish at once a $30,000 bond Sheriff Harburger said, he will have to go to jail until the bond is forthcoming. There was no inkling tonight as to who, if anyone, would come to the general's aid.

Declines to See Callers.

General Syckles himself declined to see callers, or comment on the charges against him. His aged negro servant met all comers at the door and turned them away. But for the first time in weeks the shades at all the windows of the house were raised, and in each window was placed an American flag.

Some one who thought the general would refuse admittance to the process servers asked Sheriff Harburger what he would do in case he found the door locked against him.

"I shall not break it down—of that you may be sure,' 'the sheriff replied. "I shall have to station my deputies around the house and beseige it. We have no right under the law to enter the premises by force. We will have to wait until the general comes out or surrenders."

Mrs. Syckles who recently pawned her jewels to save her husband's war relics from sale will not come to his aid in the present crisis, it is believed. She said she would welcome him with open arms, if he should come to live with her, but she did not feel that she could put out all her money in his behalf.

The order for General Syckels' arrest comes as a climax of a distinguished and picturesque career. Born in New York in 1825 of a wealthy family, General Syckels served as soldier, legislator and diplomat. The guest of honor for many years at gatherings of civil war veterans he was recently refused admission to a local organization of civil war veterans on the ground of "military unskillfulness and reckless sacrifice of the lives of his men."

Awarded Medal For Bravery.

Congress, which in 1897 awarded him with a medal of honor for bravery, three years ago refused to grant him a lieutenant-generalship. In his old age financial troubles beset him one after another and his wife, son and daughter became estranged from him.

General Syckels was a member of the house of representatives just before the outbreak of the war and it was in Washington that he shot and killed Philip Barton Keey, a United States attorney for alleged attentions to his first wife, the daughter of an Italian musician.

At the outbreak of the civil war General Syckels raised and equipped at his own expense, five regiments of volunteers and as colonel of one of them went to the front. He participated in most of the great battles of the war including Gettysburg, where he lost a leg and achieved distinction for bravery, rewarded by promotion to the rang of Major General.

From 1868 to 1873 he served as minister to Spain, where he met and married his present wife, the daughter of a Spanish counciller of state. Shortly after his return to this country with her the couple separated and Mrs. Syckels went back to Spain, where she remained until 1908.

Then she returned to New York There were frequent reports of their reconciliation and for a year or more Mrs. Syckels lived in a house adjoining her husband's but it never appeared that they were reconciled.

DEFENDS ATTITUDE IN PANAMA CANAL CASE

PRESIDENT TAFT WAS SPEAKER AT ANNUAL M. AND M. DINNER

Is in Favor of Making Transportation Rates Between the Coasts Through the Canal Lower.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 25.—President Taft speaking tonight at the annual banquet of the merchants and manufacturers' association defended the administrations attitude in the Panama canal agreement with England, declared that its position was not unpatriotic or dishonorable, and said there was no reason for any one to oppose the proposal for arbitration by an impartial tribunal.

"Whether you call it a subsidy or not, I am in favor of making the transportation rates between the coasts through the Panama canal lower," the president said. "Now the question is, can we do that under our international obligations?

"I think we can, if you read the authorities I think you will find we may.

"But if we are bound not to exempt coast-wise vessels we can agree to submit the question to an impartial tribunal.

"I'm willing to admit there are arguments on the other side. Weare willing, however, to submit our views to arbitration. There is nothing in the attitude of the administration as I have state it to show that we have been dishonorable. There is nothing to show a disposition to evade, and we are willing to rest our case with a tribunal that is impartial."

The president concluded his speech with an appeal for constitutional government, endangered, he said, in the last few months by those who proposed remedies but who could not furnish concrete examples of their proposed reforms.

Attorney General Wickersham was another speaker. The president left about 11 p. m. for Washington.

Attorney General Wickershaw took for his subject "Equal Opportunity," declaring that it is in large measure because of the gross neglect of the affairs of their companies by the individual stockholder that officials and directors in corporation have in so many instances utterly lost sight of their trust relation and used their official position and opportunities to enrich themselves without regard to interests of the stockholders whose agents they were."

New York, Jan. 25.—After eighteen months of inquiry into factories in this state, thirty two bills in the interest of men and women workers will be recommended for passage by the legislature by the state factory investigating commission. A synopsis of the commission's report which was made public to day shows among other things it will recommend that the working hours for women in canneries be limited to 60 hours a week from June 15 to October 15th, with increase to 66 hours between June 25th and August 5tht the busy season, at the discretion of an industrial board. Another recommendation will be for prohibiting night work for women.

The commission proposes to prohibit manufacturers of doll or dolls clothing and childrens wearing apparel in a tenement house for a factory.

RAPP FAILURE SHOWS M'LAUGHLIN POWER

Failure to Garner 74 Votes By Rapp Forces Indicates Hostile Control

HOLD BRIEF SESSION

Four Persons Held Session of Legislature-Adjourn Until Tuesday

WILL GET FEELING AT HOME

SPRINGFIELD, ILL. JAN. 25—Although 69 in the highest vote recorded on any ballot for John M. Rapp, for speaker of the Illinois house of representatives seventy four individual members have cast their votes for him at one time or another since the balloting began on January 8th.

This number solidified on any one ballot, together with four Socialists in the house would give the Fairfield man the constitutional majority necessary to elect him.

The failure of the Rapp forces to solidify 74 votes on one ballot gives strong indication that there is a master hand somewhere in the game against them. It also demonstrates that the McLaughlin forces have a stronger hold upon the situation than they have been credited with up to this time.

A search of the 62 ballots taken up to this time revealed that 74 members have voted for Rapp at one time or another.

Hold Brief Session.

Four persons held a session of the Illinois legislature today, adjourning both the house and senate until 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Senator Keller, of Ava, constituted both the body of the senate and the presiding officer, making the motions incident to organizing and closing a session of the upper body, putting them and declaring each carried. Representatives Lyon and Morris, both of Sangamon, were the only house members attending the session in the lower branch, presided over by Secretary Doyle.

Before returning Tuesday Democratic house members will have had an opportunity to talk to their constituents at home and learn from them how they feel about the continued deadlock. It was in order to get the pulse at home that most of the members returned to their district instead of going to Chicago for the conferences that will be in progress there during the recess. During the past week the Democratic side has been flooded with messages urging the majority party in the state to elect a speaker and break the deadlock.

Salary is Held Up.

Being the banker for your followers in a long drawn out deadlock is one of the pleasures of a speakership candidate in addition to daily having his name printed in the newspapers. Until a speaker is elected there is no officer qualified to sign the house pay roll of members and in consequence the representatives cannot draw their $2,000 salary which is waiting for them in the state treasurer's office. Almost without exception the candidates have had to meet all financial embarrassments of their followers. It is reported that being banker for his constituents is proving very expensive to at least one candidate.

State Officers-elect Angry.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—Democratic state officers-elect, angry over being off the state payroll, to which their names should have been attached on January 13, may institute mandamus proceedings next week in order to obtain their positions. Regardless of whether the house elects a speaker, they will attempt to qualify.

A meeting of the state leaders and Governor-elect Dunne will be held here tomorrow for the purpose of determining the future course to be pursued in the fight to break the deadlock.

State Chairman Arthur W. Charles and representatives of various aspirants for the speakership will attend. The governor today conferred with Medill McCormick.

Patrick J. Lucey, attorney general-elect, said further complications might rise if the new officers are not installed by Feb. 3.

Mr. Lucey suggests that in case a speaker is not elected within the next few days all officers who will be forced to give bond, offer them to Governor Deneen for approval before Feb. 3. Then if he refuses to accept them, mandamus proceedings could be started against the executive in the supreme court and thus get an opinion on the legality of the old officers holding over.

POST OFFICE WILL HANDLE ONE MAN'S MAIL.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—A postoffice and a postmaster to handle the mail of a single person has been authorized, it was learned to day whereby the head of the big public utility corporations of Chicago will be able to transact his business from his farm near Libertyville, Ill.

This arrangement is for the benefit of Samuel Insull, according to his secretary, who stated in addition that the postmaster at the Insull farm probably would be the superintendent of that place.

UNWELCOME VISITORS.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 25.—Hoboes, assembling here from all parts of the country for their national convention, have added a new feature to the gay carnival crowds that hold sway on the eve of the opening of the Mardi Gras festivities. The presence of the tramps has suggested a new idea in masks and there are "Happy Hooligans" galore, until there is no telling how many of those in the characteristic garb of the knights of the road are really those who have been drawn here by their annual convention. In the residence districts an unusual number of applications for donations from the larder are being made, but on the whole the delegates are conducting themselves well and appear to be anxious to avoid any appearance of evil. The daily attendance at the free baths tends to belief that the popular theory that the fraternity is opposed to soap and water. A local clothier, however, has put a premium on bathing by presenting several articles of new apparel when there is evidence that the task has been performed faithfully.

CONSTITUTION IS ADOPTED

LOCAL CENTRE OF DRAMA LEAGUE OF AMERICA.

Articles Governing New Organization Passed Upon at Meeting Yesterday — Committees Appointed and Rostrum of Membership Soon to be Sent to National Headquarters.

The members of the Jacksonville centre of the Drama League of America held an important meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. David Reid on West College avenue. This league is the newest organization in the city and gives promise of taking its place among the well known clubs and societies of Jacksonville.

Part of the business transacted yesterday was the adoption of a constitution and the appointment of Miss Stella Cole as chairman of the education committee and Mrs. Frank Heinl as chairman of the play and publicity committee. Superintendent W. A. Furr was made a member of the board of management, of which one more is to be named, the board consisting of nine members, the others being the present officers which are as follows:

President—Mrs. David Reid.

Vice-president—Thomas Worthington.

Second vice-president—Miss Laura Tanner.

Secretary—Prof. J. G. Ames.

Treasurer—Mrs. John R. Robertson.

The league already has a membership of forty. It was intended to send the names of all members who met the requirements of membership, to the national headquarters tomorrow, but the books will be kept open two days longer, as the management is desirous of sending as many names to the head of the organization as possible. Those who desire to join within the next two days can leave their names with Mrs. John R. Robertson or at the Jacksonville National bank. By the payment of dues now each member will receive the leaflet on bulletins to be sent out from the national headquarters.

There are various other committees to be appointed and these will be taken under advisement. It is not the object of the Drama league to create another club, which will demand frequent meetings, for in fact very few gatherings will be held, the work being done mostly through committees. It is probable that through the year the league will have one or two addresses by prominent speakers.

The following is the constitution govern the local centre:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

The name of this organization shall be the Jacksonville, Illinois, Centre of the Drama League of Amer-ca.

People Do Appreciate a Strictly Sanitary Store.

Before we opened our store we determined to conduct it on strictly sanitary lines. We believed that the people would appreciate the difference in a store where absolute cleanliness prevails and days and weeks and months have proven that our judgment was right. The people do appreciate sanitary methods and conditions and are glad of the opportunity to buy in a store where the care and system used assures them that goods sold in bulk are free from all contaminating influences and protected from dirt and dust.

CLEANLINESS AND PURITY are positively assured in handling all our goods and a visit to this store will prove how absolutely cleanly and sanitary conditions are here. Our Grocery and Drugs have no "OPEN-STOCKS.". We have adopted every known device in handling and stock keeping to insure cleanliness throughout our entire Grocery and Drug list. Every article is in a container or double wrapped package which seals in the contents against air, dust or the contamination of other foods. There is no such a thing as an open box, bin or barrel in our entire stock. Groceries or drugs bought from us are positive in quality as well as in purity.

We have but one quality standard—THE BEST—We do not purchase job lots nor odds and ends of stock. We select a certain grade to sell for a certain price and we compel those who supply us to furnish quality that meets our standard absolutely. If it is impossible to secure goods which conform perfectly to our standard, we discontinue handling such grades.

Our guarantee protects every customer in the matter of quality, purity and price. If you order 1-2 or 5 pounds or more of any of our grades of coffee we will return the price if our coffee should fail to satisfy you in quality and price. If you buy our own make flavoring extracts you will not only save money but you get nothing but pure extracts of the best fruits unadulterated and uncolored. Our flour is positively the height of excellence in the art of milling flour and in price the lowest. If you want to set a better table, increase the variety and improve the quality of food you should give us a trial and you will save money too for most of our prices are lower than you have paid for inferior qualities. Monarch Brand foods and Roberts Bros. coffees are brands which SATISFY always.

Roberts Household Remedies are Guaranteed Pure

Our leading preparation, which has just been added to our list and has proven to be so satisfactory to its many users is ROBERTS' ALMOND CREAM. This lotion is the acme of purity and perfection in toilet preparations and our personal guarantee goes with each bottle. Like our clean store it is pure white. Large bottle 35c.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

At a dinner given at the home of Mrs. Samuel Ruble, near Alexander, Saturday noon announcement was made of the engagement of her sister, Miss Margaret Luby to Leroy Hartzell, the wedding to take place next month. The Ruble home was very prettily decorated for the occasion in a color scheme of red and white and the table, where a four course dinner was served, presented a very beautiful appearance. The place cards were bell shaped, bearing strains from the wedding march from Lohengrin and the favors were heart shaped cupid boxes filled with candy. Suspended from the ceiling and just above the center of the table, was a large bell, filled with roses and smilax, and a small red ribbon was suspended from the bell to each napkin. When the guests were seated and picked up their napkins, it was arranged so that they pulled a card from the large bell ,bearing the names of the bride and groom-to-be, and in this novel manner the engagement was announced. Following the dinner a very delightful social afternoon was spent. The guest list included: Mrs. Caroline Patterson, Mrs. Bert Davenport, Mrs. Harry Beerup, Mrs. Kenneth Beerup, Mrs. Jack Walsh, Mrs. Jack Luby, Mrs. L. C. Luby, Miss Mary Hohman, Miss Margaret Luby, Mrs. G. L. WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water?

If you did what would you say of him?

It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of Dandruff and to prevent Baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Canthrarides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Growers.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots.

It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

Rheumatic Blood is Whole Story

Wonderful Specific for Sciatica, Lumbago, and a Cure for Dreaded Articular Rheumatism.

There is a host of pills, powders, tablets and what-not for rheumatism, but they all lack the first essential to being a natural medicine. To begin with, rheumatism is simply a name given to designate a variety of pains, and can only be reached by irrigating the entire blood supply with a naturally assimilative antidote. True, the pains may be eased with narcotics or the acids may be neutralized for the time being with other acids. But these merely temporize and do not even lead to a cure. There is but one standard rheumatism remedy, and it reflects the best thought of the day. It is prepared in the great Swift Laboratory in Atlanta, Ga., and sold in all drug stores under the name of S. S. S. at $1.00 a bottle.

Starvation has been advocated by many as a cure for rheumatism, and yet S. S. S. accomplishes in fact what faddists proclaim in theory and without the punishment of starvation. Hot springs and sweating are often recommended, but S. S. S. does all that is expected of these expensive and weakening methods.

It is conceded by the closest students of the subject that rheumatism is caused in most cases by an acid condition of the blood and aggravated by the remedies commonly used for relief. In other cases rheumatism is the result of nerve depression; in still others it is the effect of some scrofulous blood condition, having been treated with mercury, iodides, arsenic and other poisonous mineral drugs.

The recoveries of all these types of rheumatism by the use of S. S. S. is a wonderful tribute to the natural efficacy of this remarkable medicine, for it is assimilated just as naturally, just as specifically, and just as well ordained as the most acceptable, most palatable and most readily digested food. Do not fail to get a bottle of S. S. S. to-day. You will be astonished at the results. If your rheumatism is of such a nature that you would like to consult a great specialist confidentially, write to The Swift Specific Co., 127 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

NEW EASTERN BOXING LAW

BILL NOW BEFORE MASSACHUSETTS LEGISLATURE TO LEGALIZE BOXING.

New Plan Calls For "Inspectors" Who Shall Score All Contestants and Report to Commissioners Who Will Announce "Official" Result —Other Fight Gossip.

By James J. Corbett,
Former Heavy-weight Champion of the World.

A bill has been introduced in the Massachusetts legislature to legalize boxing exhibitions and to provide for the appointment of a state commission to supervise the sport. At present boxing is tolerated in the Bay state although under existing laws the holding of such an exhibition constitutes a crime.

To overcome the objection of those misguided individuals who oppose referees' decisions on the ground that they encourage gambling and are therefore a menace to boxing, a clause in the bill specifies that decisions are not to be made at the ringside. The plan calls for the appointment of "inspectors" who shall attend all contests and make notes of the points scored by the contestants, etc., and who must file these notes with the commissioner within twenty-four hours after each bout, the commissioners to later make public the "official" finding.

I have been given credit in the press for assisting in the framing of the Massachusetts bill. Whatever credit is coming to Eddie Keevin, the Boston sporting writer, who has engineered the bill from the beginning of the agitation to place boxing under state control. The only assistance I rendered Mr. Keevin was to suggest that some plan be incorporated in the bill that would provide for decisions. I informed him that the "no-decision" contest was unsatisfactory to boxers and patrons alike as a thorough test of it in New York state has demonstrated. The plan to appoint the inspectors is Mr. Keevin's and in view of the fact that it was pointed out that the bill would likely be defeated if it called for ringside decisions, I approved the scheme when my opinion was asked in the matter.

My stand on the decision question is too well known to call for further comment here. I have contended right along that the New York commissioners made a mistake in ruling that decisions should not be given, and believe that the members of the board will come to the same conclusion before very long. However, should the bill now pending in the Massachusetts legislature become a law it will be interesting to watch how Keevin's plan will work out.

Although Johnny Kilbane, the feather-weight champion, easily outpointed and decidedly out-classed both Johnny Dundee and Eddie O'Keefe in this city last fall, he failed to earn the good opinion of local critics. Those young men were practically unanimous in denouncing him as an imitation of what a title holder should be. Apparently taking their cue from the "experts" Gotham promoters have side-stepped Kilbane ever since.

If the truth were known, however, it would be found that the real reason of his long absence from New York is not due to a lack of appreciation of Johnny's fighting skill, but to a reluctance of the promoters to "come through" with the amount of money the champion demands and considers in keeping with his dignity as, and the drawing powers of, a feather-weight title holder.

Local fight handlers complain of poor patronage, but fail to realize that the falling off in attendance is due to their own failure to provide attractive matches. All winter long there has been a dearth of good bouts. Many of the cards offered for the entertainment of New York fans would shame a "tank town" promoter.

But to get back to Kilbane. Although the Gotham clubs can't see him as an attractive card, the promoters across the bridge think differently. When the fact became known that Johnny would consider a proposition to box in New York the Irving Athletic club, of Brooklyn, jumped at the chance to sign him. Evidently the Irving people have faith in his drawing powers as they offered a substantial guarantee, which the champion has accepted by the way to box Younk Driscoll, a promising local feather-weight, next Tuesday night. With all due respect for the opinion of the "wise" Manhattan promoters I would like to go on record right here that Kilbane breaks the Irving club's records for receipts.

Leach Cross made a number of friends by the game battle he put up against Joe Rivers. There have been times when Leachie was suspected of a desire to "dog" it, but if such a thought entered his mind during the Rivers mill he managed to keep it under control. But for that matter Leach had little choice in the style of fighting that prevailed during the bout. Rivers carried the battle to his man all the way and Cross had to fight to protect himself or deliberately quit. As a fighting "hot tomale" the Mexican more than made good.

In discussing the bout before leaving for Los Angeles, Rivers said that it was the first short contest he had taken part in for a long time. He is accustomed to the longer distances, and for that reason did not get at top speed until the latter rounds. Joe also claimed that a better understanding of the rules governing bouts in this vicinity will enable him to do better work the next time he starts.

Compared wih the manner in which Packey McFarland and Jack Britton have handled Cross in the past, Rivers' work could hardly be called impressive, but it is not as an exponent of boxing that this youngster shines. He is more on the Wolgast type and depends on strength, hitting power, aggressiveness and stamina to carry him to victory. If he can maintain his speed and strength throughout a twenty round contest and fight as fast and as hard as in the closing rounds of the Cross match there are very few lightweights who can hope to beat him. He was as fresh as a daisy at the finish of the bout. Joe is one of the toughest and strongest light-weights developed since Wolgast and, if Willie Ritchie had not flashed so suddenly on the light-weight horizon would very likely have been the boy to take Wolgast's title away.

Billy Nolan again rises to announce that Willie Ritchie will not enter the ring before July 4, and that the next engagement will take place in either San Francisco or Los Angeles. He fails to mention the name of Willie's next opponent, but hints that Packey McFarland can have the match by agreeing to make the light-weight limit. Knowing very well that there is not the slightest chance in the world of McFarland making 133 Nolan is perfectly safe in defying the Chicagoan.

A local club made Ritchie an offer to box the winner of the coming McFarland-Britton match, but Nolan refused to sign the papers. It is said by those who know Willie intimately that he does not fear the outcome of a meeting with either of those clever boys, but is bound in black and white to be guided by the shrewd Nolan in making matches for the future. Of course, that is a mighty poor excuse for a champion to offer, but it will have to suffice. If Ritchie retains the title until Nolan makes a bad match for him he will be champion for many a year.

I see that Jack Johnson has definitely agreed to meet Palzer for the heavy-weight championship, and that the date for the match has been fixed. All that remains to be done to clinch the bout is to secure the negro's acquital when his trial comes up. That may be an easy matter, and again it may not. Anyway there is little use speculating on the outcome of the match until it is a sure thing that Johnson can carry out his end of the agreement.

The question that has been raised as to whether Johnson has not already forfeited the title because American promoters have agreed to blacklist him in the future, is positively ridiculous. It is not so simple a matter, this taking the title away from a champion. It would be fine for the game if Johnson were eliminated entirely, but the only place to properly do the job is the ring. While Palzer is hardly the man we would choose to undertake the eliminating process, still he is the best material that offers. Luther McCarty could have first call, but dodges the issue. Anyway let us hope Palzer is lucky enough to win, if the fight ever takes place.

WEALTHY SOCIETY LEADER FACES TRIAL FOR ATTEMPTED MURDER

Case of F. O. Beach is Docketed For February Term at Aiken, South Carolinia—Sensational Features Are Looked For in Case.

Aiken, S. C. Jan. 25.—Society people here and elsewhere are looking forward with undisguised interest to the trial of Frederick O. Beach, millionaire New York clubman and society whip, charged with having attempted to kill his wife. Mrs. Camilla Havemeyer Beach, by slashing her throat last February, while the Beaches were occupying the winter home in this city. The case is one of the first cases to be tried in the February term of the court of general sessions, which will convene here next week. The accused and his beautiful wife have been and are still prominent in society circles of New York and other large Eastern centres and were among the leaders of the colony of Northern society people who have their winter homes in and around Aiken. Under the circumstances it is quite natural that the case should attract unusual attention among the numerous friends and social acquaintainces of the Beaches in the Aiken Winter colony. But aside from the social prominence of the accused and of his alleged victim the case promises many sensational features which are likely to make it a "cause celebre".

Mrs. Beach was formerly Miss Camilla Woodward Moss, daughter of Courtlandt D. Moss. Her first husband was Charles D. Havemeyer. He was found by her on May 10, 1898, in a room of his country home at Roslyn, dead with a bullet wound in his head. A Coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental death. On November 18, 1899, Mrs. Havemeyer married Frederick O. Beach and the marrige was one of the notable sociay events of that season. William K. Vanderbilt acted as best man. The Beaches were prominent in social circles in New York, Palm Beach and at Aiken, where, like many other wealthy New Yorkers they were in the habit of spending their winter months.

The Beaches took a leading part in the gay social life of the Winter colony and there seemed to be not the slighest suspicion of any quarrel or disagreement between Beach and his charming wife. As may be imagined it caused a deep and widely spread sensation when on the morning of February 27 of last year it became known that during the previous night Mrs. Beach had been lured into the court yard of her house and there attacked by some unidentified man who kocked her senseless with a fence paling and then slashed her throat with a knife, with the presumable intention of killing her. According to the story as told later, Pearl Hampton, a negro wail in the Beach household, was with Mrs. Beach that night. The girl was knocked down and stunned by a blow with a fence paling first it was said that according to her statement to the police her assailant was a white man. Then, presumably by the same assailant, Mrs. Beach, who had followed her maid into the court yard, was knocked down. The assailant according to her statement a negro, tore the earings out of her ears and slashed her throat with a sharp knife Almost exhausted by the loss of blood, Mrs. Beach was found by her husband, who carried her into the house and alarmed the neighbors. S. E. Holley, a rural policeman, was the first to reach the house after the attack and he summoned Dr. Marion Wyman,who closed the wound in Mrs. Beach's throat with nineteen stitches and applied restoratives.

On the following day the earings of Mrs. Beach were found not very far from the scene of the attack. It is said that in the court yard of the Beach home a blood-stained pock et knife, gold plated and studded with diamonds, was found which was identified as a knife which Mayor Gyles of Aiken has presented to Mr. Beach a short time previous to the attack.

The case caused tremendous sensation in this city and the City Council offered a reward of $1,500 for the apprehension and conviction of the murderous assailant. Later two prominent members of the Winter colony, C. Oliver Iselin and Clarence W. Dolan, each added $500 more to the reward offered. The authorities engaged W. S. Baughn, a detective, to investigate the case and upon the strength of his report the grand jury on June 4, of last year found an indictment against Mr. Beach, charging him with the attack upon his wife.

After Mrs. Beach's recovery the Beaches left Aiken together about the middle of last March for a trip abroad as the guests of William K. Vanderbilt. Mr. and Mrs. Beach were in London when they received the news that a warrant had been issued for Mr. Beach's arrest. From Paris Mr. Beach cabled his attorney to give bond for his appearance and on April 24 he returned to this country accompanied with his wife.

BRILLIANT CHICAGO ATTORNEY SEES GRAVE QUESTIONS RESULTING FROM PANAMA CANAL

Quotes Figures to Show That It Cannot Be a Commercial Asset ---Was Built to Secure Supremacy of United States---Great Responsibilities Rest Upon the People---Bar Elects Officers for Ensuing Year.

COL. JAMES HAMILTON LEWIS.

Col. Lewis who addressed the members of the Morgan County Bar Saturday night was born at Danville, Va., May 18, 1866 and later removed to August, Ga. He was educated at Houghton College and the University of Virginia. He was admitted to the bar in 1884 and two years later located in Seattle. He was soon afterward elected to the territorial senate and in 1890 declined a nomination to congress. He was a candidate for governor in 1892 and in 1896 was the state of Washington's candidate for the vice presidential nominaton at the Democratic convention. He was a member of the 55th congress from 1897 and 1899 serving as congressman at large from Washington. He was the author of a resolution presented in congress recognizing the independence of Cuba. At the Democratic convention in Kansas City in 1900 he was a candidate for the vice presidency endorsed by the Pacific states. During the war with Spain he served on the staff of Gen. F. D. Grant. From 1905 to 1907 he was corporation counsel of Chicago. He was a member of the international committee appointed to consider certain questions relating to boundary disputes between the U. S. and Canada. He has traveled extensively and has been entrused with several important missions of state for the U. S. government. Col. Lewis at the last primary received the endorsement of the Democratic party for United States senator from Illinois.

The annual banquet of the Morgan County Bar association held Saturday night at Colonial Inn was indeed a notable event. Col. J. Hamilton Lewis of Chicago was the special guest of honor and his address was the special feature of the occasion. Following the banquet Col. Lewis was introduced by Judge C. A. Barnes, who as vice-president, presided in the stead of Judge M. T. Layman, who was detained at home by sickness. The speaker's subject was: "The effect of the construction of the Panama canal upon constitutional government in America," and in language at once, ornate and picturesque but, clear and concise, discussed the question. It is safe to say that the canal and the great questions that follow in its wake were presented in a new light to the members of the bar and their friends. He pointed out that the canal is not a commercial asset and never can be so accounted, the figures he gave being little short of startling. No doubt many of his auditors found their views on the canal wholly changed as they listened to the address and became convinced that the canal brings great problems which must be settled properly if the country is to maintain its true traditions and destiny.

Bar Elects Officers.

Prior to the address by Col. Lewis, or the conversation as he modestly termed it, the Bar association held the annual business session. L. O. Vaught read the minutes of the last meeting which were then approved. Mr. Vaught said he had letters from Judge Shirley and Attorney General-elect Lucey, expressing regret because of their inability to be present.

Mr. Worthington stated that he had been informed by Judge Carl Epler of Quincy that members of the family of the late Judge Cyrus Epler have had a portrait of him painted and framed and will be glad to present the same to the Bar association if desired. A motion was passed to the effect that the association will feel honored by the presentation of the picture. Mr. Worthington, Judge Thompson and Judge Brockhouse were appointed a committee to receive the picture and arrange for having it hung in a suitable place in the court house.

The members of the bar and theis guests began to gather at Colonial Inn at six o'clock and a half hour was spent in the parlors and reception hall in a social way. The parlors had been tastefully decorated in pink and the hall in white and purple. At 6:45 o'clock the company moved to the dining room where the very handsomely spread tables awaited them. The gentlemen were soon seated in accordance with their place cards and Judge Barnes asked Dr. J. W. Miller to say grace.

About the Banquet Board.

At the central table Judge Barnes as vice-president of the bar association presided. At his right was Col. Lewis and on his left Judge O. P. Thompson. Nearby was Judge Creighton and others at this table were W. N. Hairgrove, H. J. Rodgers Judge E. P. Brockhouse, Miller Weir, A. L. French, W. T. Wilson, Judge E. P. Kirby, Dr. C. E. Black, John J. Reeve, C. B. Graff, Thomas Worthington, Frank J. Heinl, Robert Tilton, Geo. E. Doying, L. O. Vaught, Dr. C. H. Rammelkamp, Judge F. E. Baldwin, H. M. Capps, Dr. J. A. Day, Dr. P. C. Thompson, M. F. Dunlap. At other tables were Paul P. Thompson, J. Marshall Miller, Hugh Green, J. W. Merrigan, Ralph I. Dunlap, F. L. Gregory, H. H. Bancroft, Henry English, Ensley Moore, W. E. Thomson, Rev. J. W. Miller, T. F. Smith Charles R. Knollenberg, W. D. Doying, J. P. Lippincott, Walter Bellatti, Dr. R. O. Post, W. D. Wood, J. O. Priest, E. G. Saye, Andrew Russel, G. L. Merrill, J. W. Walton.

A dinner of eight courses was served in a faultless way. The dining room had been decoratedly for the banquet with exceptionally good taste. The center of the great table was massed with narcissi and dwarf crimson rambler roses and above it was a shower of elaborate and graceful design.

Arrangements for the evening were made by these special committees, baqnuet, Paul P. Thompson, L. O. Vaught, F. E. Baldwin; speaker, Judge Layman, Judge Thompson, W. N. Hairgrove and Robert Tilton.

Advantages of a Small Bar.

In his introductory remarks Col. Lewis said he counted it an especial pleasure to have the opportunity to accept the invitation to be the speaker of the evening and said that as he looked about him there came a certain feeling of regret because his lot was cast in a large city. He said that in a large city, with a large bar the members meet only a few time in a year in court that it some times happened tha members of the bar became sick, died and were buried before their brother members new of the facts. So he said that the kindly feeling among the members of the Morgan County bar so evident in a family gathering like that of Saturday night appealed to him strongly. The speaker said further that he had been anxious to talk upon some subject which would be in no danger of being misconstrued as a possible appeal for popularity among any certain class of people. Moreover the subject he would present was one upon which he felt very strongly and had been hoping for an opportunity when he might present his views to an audience he knew would be in hearty sympathy with his serious thought and intentions. From time to time there were flashes of the wit and brilliancy which have become so intimately associated with the name of Col. Lewis and when at the conclusion he pointed out that it remained for the lawyers of the country to defend it against the dangers which are possible as the result of the canal his auditors showed their appreciation and approval by round after round of applause. The enthusiam with which the whole address was received, the earnest attention given furnished the best proof of the acknowledged fact that the members of the bar and their friends accounted themselves as especially fortunate in being able to secure the presence of the eminent speaker, lawyer and diplomat.

Col. Lewis said in part:

Undersell U. S. in Orient.

First, from a commercial point of view,—I am impressed with the thought that with the canal finished and being an open sea, England, Germany and France will manufacture with cheap labor, and cheaper opportunities, in their own country and then put their goods upon sailing vessels from their own ports, send them through our canal, land them in Yokohoma, Japan, or Shanghai, China, to be received by those interests which represent these respective governments in the Orient, where there are no tariffs against their mother country. Thus these European countries will be able to undersell us in the Orient and provide materials and goods cheaper through our own canal than we can make them upon our American standard in American factories and ship in competition—even through our canal, though free to us.

As we have no American ships now we will have to ship our own materials in the ships of our rivals, paying an added freight; our rivals the meanwhile pay no freight excess because of the ships belonging to the nations or subsidized by nations from which these ships are sent.

The reverse order of this policy, to our commercial loss, will follow when the Orient sends its goods in either Oriental or European ships back through our canal to Europe, under the same favorable conditions, so far as competing with us is concerned, as I pointed out would be the other course of Europe to Asia. These ships coming and going would unload their materials for all the ports of South America, anywhere upon the isthmus and thus undersell us at our southern doorway.

Previous to the construction of the canal, goods were shipped to the Atlantic and for rapid transit were conveyed to the Pacific by rail, there taken and put upon the ships and landed in the Orient. America had by this system the advantage, as in an emergency matter the Orient would buy from America, as being nearer than Europe, the facilities for railroads crossing the country giving the advantage. All of this to my mind, seems lost by the building of our canal, where we cannot give preference to American ships, as against our rivals—if the contention that England now makes under the Hay-Pauncefort treaty—demanding equal terms with us—or that we must charge our own ships and cannot let them pass through without charge, same as put on foreign vessels—should be sustained.

Must Bear Maintainance Expense.

Finally, the expense of maintaining the canal all the while will still be borne by us. This expense must be levied in some degree upon the manufacturers and business men who ship or purchase the goods. These it is who in the first instance will pay for the construction and the maintenance of the canal in the form of indirect taxes. In the meanwhile they are drawing nothing whatever from the canal, or benefits from it as a shipipng highway.

The canal cost four hundred million dollars, and ten million dollars for fortification. It must be apparent that if the canal could be paid for by installments each year, and to these installment payments there could be a profit made to our people—in competition with the world—of a million dollars turned into the government, upon the lowest estimate it would be four hundred years before we could pay back to the people the money we paid for the canal. In the meantime the expenses for keeping up the canal are increasing, and the emergencies providing for fortifications and military support multiplied. For a while the South American countries will buy from us just enough to get their manufacturing plants started. Then this country will begin to buy from those foreign countries that bear the same nationalities as those different nationalities in South America may be. This because of kindred, blood, nationality, and for the further reason that the relative tastes of the people are about the same, and the demand for products would be for that which is produced in their mother countries, fitting to the customs of both the mother country and the South American colonies.

But it is to the military and political future which the canal imposes upon our republic that I would arouse the reflection of my countrymen.

U. S. Policy Has Changed.

America must awake to the complete consciousness that the United States has changed her policy of a century. This republic has embarked upon new seas. And her adventure is fraught with great perils, though her people are equal to the emergencies and are prepared for the events which may ensue from the new policy. To charge Europe or Asia for the use of our canal for shipping, is to invite the ports of Europe and Asia to lay a retaliation tax on all American goods entering European or Asiatic ports. This could, if severe, result in cutting off our foreign trade completely. To not charge the world's shipping is to be in debt for the construction and maintenance of the canal, to the loss of six hundred million dollars to the American people—four hundred million dollars for construction and two hundred million dollars for fortifications and maintenance. To charge our own people a price sufficient to pay the canal expense would make freight charges equal the freight rates of the railroads, and no reduction of rates could come from that. To charge ourselves nothing for the use by our ships or shippers is to continue the tax on the citizen to pay for and keep up the canal. As a business proposition every advantage heretofore conceived is offset by a corresponding evil.

What Is "Sure Fatten Hog Food"

It is a dark colored granular meal, made from meat residues, and it supplies the protein and phosphates necessary for compounding a balanced ration in most economical and palatable form.

It contains phosphates in proper proportion to insure strength of bone and frame work. In the corn belt bone development is a matter of serious consideration.

It is not a substitute for corn, but a small quantity fed in connection with corn or other grains gives a balanced ration.

It is the most economical source of digestible protein known, containing twice as much protein as oil meal and five times as much as middlings, shorts, shipstuff, or alfalfa meal,

TANKAGE is recommended by all leading experiment stations.

It is packed in one-hundred-pound burlap sack, plainly marked "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD," analysis as above.

It is the ideal feed to balance rations.

What "Sure Fatten Hog Food" Tankage Does.

It developes bone and muscle in young pigs and makes them grow. It matures a hog for market in two and three months quicker than corn alone, thereby, saving one third of the feed bill, one third of the labor, one third of the risk, increasing profits one third.

It grows beter proportioned hogs, more meat, and more fat, hence market-topper hogs. SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD TANKAGE fed hogs ship well with small shrink.

While in nowise a medicine, it so fortifies and strengthens the system against attacks of disease germs that SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD TANKAGE fed hogs are universally healthy hogs.

COL. J. HAMILTON LEWIS SPEAKER AT RNNJAL COUNTY BAR BANQUET

isted in the past for the United States to have remained an isolated republic—distant and divorced—from the commercial and territorial operations of the world, have all been changed. They have been reversed by the policy that has decreed the construction of the Panama canal. Heretofore America could have remained an integral nationality, untouched by European or Asiatic countries, save in friendly intercourse—she in no wise entering into the spheres of these countries, or their commercial or military entanglements. Under such conditions, America could elect as to whether she would sit in complaisant mood and beckon for trade, and accept the consequences whether her invitation be accepted or rejected; or whether she would move out and by her personal presence prove, by the superiority of competition in trade, as well as her right to partake and enjoy the fortunes of the earth for the benefit of her own citizens. Doubtless with great respect, but with little obedience to the views of the fathers of this republic, our present government, voicing the wishes of the people, have chosen the latter course of entering into the affairs of the world by moving the legions of our forces, both military and commercial, to the foreign fields of action. We have taken the Philippine Islands and established government there. We have entered with England into a commercial control of a part of a Japanese sphere in Chinese Manchuria. We have now stepped into Central America, seized one of the states, and from militiary necessity, appropriated Panama, and lent ourselves to a joint scheme of financial administration in Persia. And lastly, we have announced the intention of America—by military force if need be—to enter the affairs of China to maintain the neutrality of that country as against invading forces from either Russia, Germany or England. Military detachments of the United States have been sent from the Philippine Islands to the new republic of China, with a view of securing this end.

The question of the wisdom of this course is not now to be debated. It is a finished fact and has to be treated as an American act—to be defended, if need be, by all Americans.

Regarded as Intruders.

These events of our departure necessarily have aroused feelings of hostility from all the countries of the Orient. They regard us, as they do the European nations of Europe who have heretofore been bent upon the conquest of territory—as intruders—if not invaders. Japan and China now confront the fact that while we will not let either of them bring their citizens into our country, we insist on forcing them to let our citizens in their country. That while we cannot let them colonize our territory in an American country, we insist upon colonizing their territory in an Asiatic country. That this will force retaliation from these people as penalty for our refusal of reciprocity, is in time inevitable. Such is the state of people and ever the course of nations.

South America—bitter towards us for having forcibly wrested Panama from Colombia—and, in fear that our next move is that—which clearly it must be—to occupy, in some arrangement, Lower California (which is the Mexican state adjoining the state of California) and also Central America, seeing that it is inevitable but that the United States must put a protectorate over Honduras, Nicaragua and Costa Rico, in order to be assured that those countries would maintain such peace and order as would permit the enjoyment of the canal by the nations of the earth—all these developments have aroused a deep seated feeling of enemity, though disguised and smothered, yet smouldering. Now that we have cut the Panama canal through the isthmus into the Pacific seas, Europe claims as much right to pass through our territory to Asia as we have, and Asiatic vessels through our canal to Europe as ours have. While we have no treaty with Asia to secure this privilege, we have with England, and the spheres of England influence both in China and Japan—where she maintains government—will force upon us the same privilege to the Asiatic in this respect as granted to Europe. In this condition we find America with the south open to the assaults from enemies—and allies—from Asia and from Europe.

Enemies Will Arise.

These enemies must arise as commercial competition is enforced by us and military aggression previously entered upon multiplied in the form of defense of our rights in either Central America, Mexico, or China. Resentments because of these entrances upon our part will take the form of retaliation. The Oriental nations, upon their first common grievance will seize either Philippine Islands or Hawaii. That forces us to go there and make battle to rescue them and preserve our honor. Or Mexico and the South American countries in alliance will take up the cause of Colombia, or of our forcing quietude on our border in Mexico, and bring on the conflicts at the south of the isthmus giving as the ground that such is necessary to prevent our threatened invasion of South America—certainly of Mexico and Central America. Germany with her influences and property in South America and Mexico, England with hers in similar zone and territory, will be compelled to remain neutral. Neither can give aid to us, and could not well give aid to the enemy. In the meantime, Japan will freely lend her aid to the South American forces, and under the guise of befriending these countries against invasion, wreak the long existing grievances growing out of our rejection of the Asiatic people from this sphere.

Canal Weakness as Well as Strength

The canal in such event will occupy the interesting phase of being a weapon of assault and injury upon us, as great as that of defense and benefit. Central America or the inimical forces in Panama alone, with one hundred dollars of dynamite, can blow the canal out of commission, render it useless to the navy. This I beheld as I inspected the construction last year—as can be seen by any observer. The navy that is then upon the Pacific would promptly be set upon by the combined navies of Asia and we would be powerless to reach our own—by the Cape—with the Atlantic squadron in time to save it from defeat. On the Atlantic side, the combined South American countries, with the secret friendships they would get from our enemies in Europe, would hold the Atlantic squadron at bay, because of the inability of our western division to make connection through the canal to the relief of the Atlantic.

We Have Become Military Republic.

As the Panama canal was never constructed with a view of commercial profits, but merely, as ex-President Roosevelt has well said as "a military necessity," and as President Taft has lately stated, for the purpose of "augmenting the navy," it is apparent that its whole use is one of military purpose. This establishes that it was the policy of our outgoing government to take such steps as military necessity may require to enforce our pre-eminence in any sphere of the world, where the needs of our people command, or the spirit of our institutions justify. The canal, then, as matters now stand, must be so fortified that millions of dollars annually must be expended to maintain the army. Then, in order that to the Pacific there would have to be a navy of such quantity and quality—this must be in itself sufficiently large to comprehend the complete defense of the Pacific coast and Hawaii and the Phflippines. While on the Atlantic the squadron must be so doubled and multiplied in number and in quality as to be in itself sufficient for the defense of the South Atlantic, Porto Rico and the eastern coast, or to co-operate as a necessity to protect the canal for all the uses for which it was intended, and to establish in the world the policy and power of America, for which the canal is being constructed. Similiar conditions was the exact experience of England in maintaining the Suez canal.

The United States, then, from this event must clearly recognize that it has changed its whole attitude to its own people and to the world. From a government of quiet peace, resting at home, alone, and sufficient unto itself, it graduates into a government interesting itself in the affairs of the world. It enters upon the theatre of human action over the whole earth, and becomes at once the target for the assaults of its foes, while it places upon the American citizen the test as to whether he is ready to make the advance in money, war, debt and risks—for the contemplated advantages to be obtained to the citizenship of his country: or does he prefer to relinquish these hopes to accept in turn the security of the undisturbed present, with its prospect of supine peace and limited destiny, but of a constitutional and not a military republic? These are the questions forced upon us by the construction of the canal, and our occupation of foreign spheres.

To my prophesy—the cutting of the Panama canal has made a gash in the side of the earth through which the tomorrows will run red with strange destinies for America. It is for the thoughtful statesmanship of today to calculate the form of America's protection of that uncertain tomorrow.

NATURE'S REMEDIES FOR DISEASE.

Every fall in olden times the family medicine chest was replenished with roots, herbs and barks, nature's remedies for disease. Scullcap for nervousness, Pennyroyal for colds, Clover Blossoms for the blood, Thoroughwort for colds, Wormwood and Balm of Gilead Buds for sprains, and so on. It is interesting to note that the most successful remedy for female ills the world has ever known had its origin nearly forty years ago from roots and herbs and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made today in immense quantities from those same roots and herbs with extreme accuracy, care and cleanliness. The standard remedy for female ills.

Last year thirty-five volumes were added to the list and Mr. Reid expresses surprise at the eagerness with which the books are read, not only by the school children, but by the young people not now in school and even by the parents themselves.

400,000 Men Saved From the Liquor Disease

In the last 30 years 400,000 men have been saved from the drink habit by the Keeley Treatment. They were hopeless, despairing—down and out! NOW they have happy homes and families—they have taken a new, fresh start. The sun is shining again!

"Drunkenness Is a Disease and I Can Cure It"

Dr. Leslie E. Keeley startled the world, thirty-two years ago, with this famous statement. Physicians were incredulous. Millions jeered and scoffed. BUT IT WAS TRUE!

Nearly everyone knows—now—that it is useless to abuse or upbraid a man who drinks to excess. His own conscience does that daily, hourly. He is a sick man and can no more cure himself than can a man suffering from smallpox or brain fever.

Yet he can be saved! You, who read this, can help him! WE CAN CURE HIM!

What, Then, Is the Liquor Disease?

It is an altered condition of the nerve cells, caused by the excessive use of alcohol, wherein the nerves have become trained to feed on it, and will not do their work except under its influence.

The "craving" or appetite for liquor is not the disease. It is merely the symptom of the disease just as a cough is a symptom of some irritation or inflammation.

When the disease is removed the craving for drink disappears just as the cough disappears when the cause of the trouble is removed.

The World-Famous "Keeley Cure"

The Keeley treatment—known the world around as the "Keeley Cure"—is simply the application of reconstructive nerve tonics which remove the artificial alcoholic appetite of the nerve cells and restore them to a natural, healthy condition.

We also cure Opium, Morphine and other drug addictions. The drug is withdrawn gradually and there is no shock, collapse, prostration or sickness. Full particulars in plain, sealed envelope on request.

The treatment produces no sickness or nausea. It requires no restriction or confinement of patients. It leaves absolutely no ill effects.

The Keeley treatment can be had ONLY at the Keeley Institute, Dwight, Illinois, or at its official branches, of which there is one or more in almost every state.

Any claims to furnish the Keeley treatment in any other way are false.

Results of the "Keeley Cure"

The effect of the Keeley remedies is to absolutely destroy the craving and appetite for drink. The man who takes the Keeley treatment is no longer called on to fight an appetite. The desire and necessity for alcohol are gone.

And the cure lasts! Hear what men say who have been saved!

"This is the twentieth anniversary of my reincarnation and release from the bondage of the Demon Rum. Completely cured—the accursed appetite never to return."

"This is the eighteenth anniversary of my graduation at Dwight. No matter what rises, I never think of whiskey."

"I took the cure twelve years ago—Drink is no longer any temptation to me."

"Words cannot express what I feel in my soul for the God-given saving institute at Dwight, Ill. I haven't the least desire for drink any more than if I had never tasted it."

We have many, many thousands of letters like the above.

Full Information on Request

We have a number of booklets and other printed matter explaining full details of the Keeley treatment. These we will be glad to send, on request, to inquirers.

Information is mailed in plain, sealed envelope.

All correspondence is sacredly confidential.

YOU can SAVE that brother, relative, friend, employee from ruin, disgrace and death!

Will you do it?

CONTRACTS AWARDED FOR NEW NURSES HOME

BUILDING AT PASSAVANT TO BEGIN SOON.

Hope is to Have Work Completed By July 15th—Structure Will Be Three Stories High and Face Brown Street.

The new nurses' home for Passavant memorial hospital is now an assured fact as far as contracts with reliable people can make it so and a brief description of the proposed structure may be of some interest. The endeavor has first of all been to have a solid, substantial edifice, not gaudy or loud but neat, attractive, reasonably ornimental and wholly servicable. For this purpose other places were visited and notes of the best structures of the kind carefully taken; the best experience of the capable superintendent of the hospital was employed and the advice vice of all able to give good suggestions was asked and all these were laid before J. K. C. Pierson, the architect and his advice and counsel were sought and the result, it is confidently hoped and expected, will be a building neat, attractive, solid and substantial and wholly adapted to the purposes for which it is intended.

An Inspected Hospital.

There is no class of persons whose services are more important than nurses. On them depends so much in the welfare, comfort and even recovery of the patients under their care and how important it is then that they have reasonably good accommodations. Passavant hospital is a registered institution, and its graduate nurses have a standing in the state of which they may be proud and which is a guarantee of their efficiency. They pass rigid examinations and are wholly qualified for their profession. The hospital is visited by state inspectors who closely examine everything and they have commended everything about the place except the quarters for the nurses which they have put down as third class and no wonder. The management of the hospital has done the best possible with the means at hand and could do no more. The nurses have been obliged to herd together in dormitories with few of the amenities of life; no opportunity to receive guests of their own and no privacy as is reasonable for any one to have and it is hoped that a new era for their comfort is is to be ushered in very soon.

Three Story Building.

The building is to face on Brown street and stand northwest of the main plant. It will be 31 by 50 feet foundation with three tsories; the front entrance on Brown street and a rear entrance to the grounds of the institution. It is to be built of paving brick of atractive color and laid in cement, solid and substantial with no effort at furbelows but with an eye to good proportions, neatness and attractive appearance on all sides.

The front entrance will have concrete steps and concrete platform flanked by balustrades and the rear entrance will be substantial.

On the first floor the front door will open into a vestibule and that to a reception room for callers and general living room. On this floor the directress of nurses will have her private suite of rooms with private bath. There will also be a small kitchen for while the nurses will eat in the dining room of the main building they will be enabled to prepare for themselves a lunch, cup of hot drink, toast and simple articles here if desired. In this room will be a sink and cupboard, gas stove and other conveniences. There will also be two double rooms that is, rooms each to accommodate two persons, two single rooms and these rooms will have for their especial use in this floor a bath and toilet room. Over all the room doors there will be transoms.

On the second floor will be four double rooms and four single rooms and at each end of the corridor will be a bath and toilet room. On this floor will be a linen room for storage and assorting.

On the third floor will be three double rooms and one single room with a toilet and bath room at the end of the corridor. A prime feature of this floor will be a sleeping porch capable of accommodating nearly enough cots for all the occupats of the building as long as they want to sleep out of doors, virtually. The eaves of the building will extend five feet over the edge of the apartment, it will be thoroughly screened in so as to be wholly private and supplied with sash which can be put in place in case of storm and another prime feature will be a canvass floor like that on the deck of a ship so that moisture on it will not do any injury.

Space is saved in the interior by the use of steel girders and columns from basement to ceiling.

The basement will be supplied with a concrete floor and will have in it the heating plant and coal room. There will also be a large apartment, 25 by 30 which may eventually be finished off so as to serve for assembly rooms and any other purpose for which many would be gathered together.

Many Conveniences.

Each nurse will have in the room she occupies an individual clothes closet for her especial use which will be hers only. There will in all be five bath and toilet rooms. The interior will be finished in yellow pine with yellow pine floors. In the living room and corridors there will be dark English stain and in the others the natural color of the wood. The walls and ceilings in the living room and corridors will be painted and the plastering will be sand finished throughout. The interior wood work will be specially finished with a sand papering machine which is something new in this vicinity.

The lighting will be with electricity and gas in the corridors in case of emergency. The lights will be controlled with switches on each floor so that on any floor a person may light any story in the building at will.

Over the rear entrance there will be an ample balcony for airing bedclothes or any other desired purpose.

The hardware will be bronze trimming which is very desirable. The building will have its own steam heating plant and so arranged that it may be connected with the main or any other building at some future time if desired.

In general the effort has been to provide pleasant, home like quarters for the nurses and the hope is that the completed structure will show a reasonable degree of success.

Contracts Awarded.

The general contractors are Joshua Vasconcellos & Sons; Andrews & Sons, supply the lumber and mill work, the latter from the South Side planing mill; the Robinson Brothers do the brick and plastering and Bernard Gause the plumbing and steam heating, the Illinois Steel Bridge company furnishes a large quantity of steel beams and girders. The special building committee will be John R. Loar who will be superintendent of construction, Dr. Carl E. Black and F. E. Farrell.

It is expected the building will be finished by the middle of July should circumstances prove favorable.

BRONCHITIS PREVALENT.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Man Tells of Best Remedy.

At this season of year with such sudden changes, it is so easy to take cold, and almost before one is aware there is inflammation in the bronchial tubes—a hard cough and unless checked in time chronic pulmonary troubles may result.

Wilbur Adams of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "A severe bronchial trouble contracted in January caused me much difficulty about breathing. My chest felt clogged up and there was ocnsiderable soreness, all of which made me quite uneasy besides being very painful.

I tried different remedies without help, but I am glad to say that Vinol cured my bronchial trouble which had lasted for three months. My breathing is all right now and the soreness entirely gone from my chest."

Vinol contains the curative, healing principles of fresh cod livers (without oil) and tonic iron. We guarantee it to be delicious in taste and to satisfy you with its medicinal effects. Lee P. Allcott, druggist, Jacksonville, Illinois.

P. S. If you have any skin trouble try Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

QUICK RELIEF FOR RHEUMATISM.

George W. Koon, Lawton, Mich., says: "Dr. Detchon's Relief for Rheumatism has given my wife wonderful benefit for rheumatism. She could not lift hand or foot, had to be lifted for two months. She began to use of the remedy and improved rapidly. On Monday she could not move and on Wednesday she got up, dressed herself and walked out for breakfast." Sold by L. P. Allcott, druggist.

Which Side of the Fence are You On?

During the past few years the industrial progress and growth of this country has been nothing short of marvelous. The increase in the population of our large cities has been tremendous. As a consequence, the consuming or non-producing population is increasing much faster than the producing population. this condition has upset the economic ratio of supply to demand especally in the case of agricultural products—meat, milk, butter, and prices have gone to an almost unheard of level.

The consumer pays the bills. The producer reaps the benefit. He has the advantage.

If you are a consumer, why don't you turn producer? Instead of letting the high cost of living prove a hardship, why don't you turn it nto a real opportunity.

If you don't get a good start on the road toward Independenceville, now, while the going is good, you can't blame anybody but yourself. Your Uncle Sam will give you a farm. The rest is up to you.

It won't cost you anything to post up. Let me send you a copy of our Free Government Lands folder. It contains a lot of information that is interesting and valuable, some of which may surprise you,

THE WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

TONE OF STOCK MARKET IMPROVES

TRADING WAS CONDUCTED IN CAUTIOUS WAY DURING BRIEF SESSION.

The Improvement in Market Tone Was Traceable to Steadiness of the Foreign Markets.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, Jan. 25.—A better tone prevailed during today's brief session of the stock exchange. Trading was conducted in a cautious way but there was none of the depression of yesterday and such small changes as were recorded were for the most part in the direction of a higher level. The improvement was traceable to the steadier tone of the foreign markets and consequent lightening of the adverse influences from that source, which yesterday took the form of selling by London and Berlin. Domestic conditions were little changed.

The narrow and hesitating movement at the opening reflected the uncertainty of traders but as the session advanced the tone hardened. The upward movement in most cases was confined within fractional limits. The local traction issues were the strong features of the list, Interborough common and Pennsylvania and Brooklyn gaining two points of expectation of steady conclusion of the subway negotiations.

Judge Gary's statement denying that the steel corporation would dissolve voluntarily seemed to relieve the pressure against steel. The effect of the heavy outflow of gold to France and Argentine was shown in today's bank statement. Although cash continued to come in from the interior during the week in undiminished volume, the gain from this source was almost offset by gold exports, and the actual table showed a cash gain by the banks of $3,000,000, much the smallest of several weeks. Figures elsewhere were scaled down, the increase in loans and deposits being considerably smaller.

CORN AND OAT MARKET STEADY

WHEAT ATTAINED BEST PRICES EARLY IN SESSION.

Heaviness in Wheat Developed Later When Corn Failed to Hold All of Its Advance—Spot Market Stagnant.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, Jan. 25.—Corn and oats today were steady, provisions firm and wheat heavy.

Wheat attained the best prices of the day early on an advance at Liverpool and in sympathy with corn although continental markets were generally lower. Heaviness developed later when corn failed to hold all of its advance, and the trade became convinced through various reports that stocks of flour in the principal cities of accumulation are very large. New York, for instance, claimed that a lot of it is being held on track on demurrage.

A stagnant spot market and a decline in red winter wheat at Kansas City were additional bearish factors, and the close was at net decline of ⅜@½c for May. Clearances in wheat and flour equalled 344,000 bushels while primary receipts were 1,195,000 bushels against 700,000 bushels a year ago.

Corn owed its strength principally to an advance at Buenos Ayres and reiteration of reports that the recent rain in Argentine was insufficient. The Buenos Ayres advance, however, was mostly lost and traders took cognizance of the fact that most of the bullish crop reports were coming from the Argentine Central speculative market rather than from the corn belt proper, following which the local market receded from the top and May closed only a shade over yesterday. Trade in oats was small and fluctuations followed those of wheat and corn, May closing a shade up. The best buying was by shorts while the selling seemed to come from more influential quarters.

Provisions were dull but higher market in sympathy with higher hogs, although the week's receipts were larger than those of the previous week. Local longs were sellers on the advance, but the close was 5@7½ to 20c over yesterday.

WILL HANG INSANE MAN.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 25.—President Taft having declined to extend clemency, preparations are being made for the execution Monday of Andrew Gonzales, whose case has attracted wide attention because of the dispute over his sanity. The condemned man has made no effort to save himself from the gallows, though his attorneys have worked hard in his behalf. The fight for his life has hinged wholly upon the question as to his sanity. That he killed his wife in cold blood, without extenuating circumstances, has never been denied. Gonzales admitted on the stand that for days he had intended slaying his wife, but he has asserted from the first that he did it to save the world and that he is Jesus Christ. He would not kill her in the house where she lived, first sending her to a store, then getting his knife ready and cutting her throat on the street as she returned. From the day of his arrest, Gonzales has urged the officials to hang him, saying that nothing would suit him better, and he has consistently acted the part of an insane man. After carefully reviewing the case, President Taft concluded that the condemned man's condition is not such now and was not such when he committed the crime as to exempt him from responsibility for murder in the first degree.

Fred Craven, W. A. Masters, W. H. Mosely and John Davenport were visitors in the city Saturday from Pisgah.

BIG YIELD OF OATS.

Eighty Bushels Per Acre of Oats as the Effect of Phosphorus.

Bloomington Pantagraph: One practical farmer by the name of W. H. Rowe, living close to Jacksonville, got 80 bushels per acre yield of oats last year by the use of rock phosphate. Five years ago this piece of timber soil was broken up out of a stand of weeds and clover and was planted to corn. The corn made between 35 and 40 bushels to the acre. The next year the oats yielded about 50 bushels and the stand of clover was fair. In the fall of 1910, 1000 pounds of rock phosphate was put on the acre and was plowed under with the clover. The next spring corn was planted and it was fine, but the grubs got it. In the month of April of the next year oats were sown at the rate of two bushels to the acre. After sowing the ground was double disked, the clover was sown and cross harrowed. The result of such good care was 80 bushels and 3 pecks of oats to the acre.

Mr. Rowe said that most ground is deficient in nitrogen and phosphorus, and the clover and the rock phosphate supplied these two things. The yield before was not big because the crop did not have a balanced ration of plant foods. The grain needs a great deal of phosphorus and the stalk needs the nitrogen. The crop that made 50 bushels had very large stalks, but did not have any heads. It did not have heads because there was no phosphorus to feed them.

Most any farmer can watch the crops as Mr. Rowe has, and with a little study can tell very closely in what the soil is lacking. Besides the large crop that was gotten there was a large crop of straw, Mr. Rowe said that some stalks were five feet and ten inches high.

STRAUSS'S EMPORIUM

LEADING STORE FOR WOMEN'S WEAR.

A new name that will mark a new epoch in the Commercialism of Jacksonville. In a few days this Solon of Women's Fashions will be transferred into a great, large, beautiful shopping place for ladies who are particular about what they wear and the price they pay.

Mr. Olian and family move to New York City after considering St. Louis and other cities of lesser importance. He decided that The Metropolis of America is to be his future home.

Jerome I. Olian, the man who originated The Emporium on East State street and who by the way has made Emporium a house word, will leave, accompanied by his wife and son, for New York City, probably tomorrow night or Tuesday. He has made up his mind to engage in the wholesale manufacturing of women's high grade garments. He has severed all connections with the Emporiuum, so far as finance is concerned, but he intends to manage it in a way that will prove a revelation to Mr. Strauss and his future success. Mr. Olian will be in position to purchase the most wonderful and most beautiful things that women wear, in a way that will fairly dazzle this community. So far as styles are concerned, New York City is acknowledged to be the Gateway of America, and as for prices on merchandice Mr. Olian will see that it will be offered at prices far below wholesale. He will also act incapacity as resident buyer for The Emporium. Many times the ladies of this city and vicinity want some special sort of a dress, a coat, a suit or a hat. By telling Mr. Strauss your wants he immediately wires on to New York city and two days later your ideal of a garment or hat is here for you. Mr. Olian will also act as advertising manager and will keep this paper filled with numerous announcements and illustrations of garments, just the same identical styles as are worn in New York City.

The present stock on hand consists only of Winter Wearing Apparel that is now offered far below wholesale cost for immediate disposal.

Please note that every Garment and Hat carried over from last spring and summer has been shipped to a St. Louis firm and sold. With the opening of this coming spring season this store will be filled with only the very newest and best in 1913 styles. Shipments will begin to arrive this coming week.

New alterations on the building will be made and new window decorations will be used.

A greater and better store will be assured you. The prices will always remain Lowest.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES AT GRACE METHODIST CHURCH

Revival Will Commence Today Under the Leadership of Dr. J. W. Miller.

Under the leadership of the pastor the members of the Grace church have decided to launch their evangelistic campaign next week. The meetings will continue each evening at 7:30, beginning with a song service led by a large chorus. Several hundred new song books, Hymns and Spiritual Songs Number Two is the book that will be used. It is one of the best for fine gospel songs that can be found. Rev. Mr. Miller has used the book before and has found it meets all the demands for revival music.

Dr. J. W. Miller.

The Brotherhood of the church met a few evenings ago and planned to organize the men of the church to help push the campaign. It is always understood that the women will do their part in the work of the church and the women of Grace church are not one whit behind the good women of any other church in their readiness and loyalty to help the church when ever needed. Several committees were appointed by the Brotherhood to help the pastor in this great work. The outlook is very promising and it is felt that many families will be reached by the meetings.

Rev. Mr. Miller will do most of the preaching during the meetings. The chorus and organ will be in the hands of Mr. Max and Donald Swarthout. The best solo voices of the city will assist from time to time in the special numbers and the music of the organ and the hymns will be well taken care of.

There will be no day meetings the first week. This will give the members time to visit among friends and families that should be won by the meetings. At seven o'clock each evening various groups will meet at the church for prayer and consultation. The entire membership of the church will be grouped and will work togethed in groups for visiting and personal work.

Several all day campaigns for visiting will be planned. A decision day service will be held in the Sunday school during the meetings. Some cottage prayer meetings will be held the second week. Special themes and services will be announced.

Sunday will be an important day. Every member who can possibly be present is urged to attend both morning and evening services. The morning subject is "A Striking Symbol.' In the evening the subject will be "On the Wrong Track." At both services some specially fine musical numbers will be given. All are welcome to these services.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE GUILD.

There will be a meeting of the Illinois Woman's colege Guild on Saturday afternoon, February 1st, at 3 o'clock at the college.

Miss Laura Tanner will speak on The Short Story. Mrs. Paul Thompson will give a reading.

The musical numbers will be given by Miss Louise Miller and Miss Mary Shastid.

Each member has the privilege of bringing one guest.

John O'Brien of Murrayville paid the city a visit yesterday.

ENGINEERS' CONVENTION.

Engineer H. L. Caldwell is at home after attending the 28th annual meeting of the Illinois Society of Engineers and Surveyors, of which organization he is a member. The meeting was held in the Great Northern hotel convention rooms in Chicago and was well attended. The election of officers for the ensuing year was held and with the following result: L. K. Fires In Jacksonville

Monday's Courier had the foliowing:

ROOF CATCHES FIRE

"Saturday evening the roof of the residence of Newton Sargent at 350 West Court street caught fire about 6:30 o'clock, burning a small hole. The fire department was called, but a Babcock extinguisher was used by a member of the department in putting out the fire."

Tuesday's Journal tells of a fire at 302 North East street., caused by a coal oil lamp, at which a woman was badly burned. The Journal siys: "In the meanwhile the fire department was called and extinguished the fire with the chemical."

Only lack of information prevents EVERY HOME having its own Babcock. The cost is small; anybody can use it; it is always ready. There is nothing secret about it, and if you call at our office, 110 South West street, we will be glad to explain it to you fully.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 25.—Building and loan associations of the state of Illinois has prospered during the last year, according to the twenty-first annual report submitted by State Auditor McCullough to Governor Deneen. There are now 592 associations in the state with total resources amounting to $74,457,000. Nineteen associations were incorporated during 1912, and the total investment increased by $5,482,000 or 7.9 per cent.

In the last ten years, associations have paid out a grand total of $150,-000,000 for installments withdrawn and matured and interest and profits withdrawn. In spite of the heavy disbursements, investments by way of installments paid and profits accrued during the year grew from $36,000,000 to $67,000,000.

The average investment per person in Illinois is $11,68, as compared with $7.34 ten years ago.

Cairo, Ill., Jan. 25.—The Ohio river reached a stage of 48.8 feet here this afternoon a rise of two-tenth of a foot in 24 hours. The crest o the flood is expected tomorrow at 49 feet. A great sea of water now is spread out in all directions from Cairo. The Steamers City of Cairo and Three States to day brought livestock from the flooded district of Southeast Missouri into Cairo.

Wabash River Falling.

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 25.—The Wabash river began to fall tonight after having reached a stage of 21 feet and 2 inches. Residents of Taylorville and West Terre Haute driven out by the high water are preparing to return to their homes.

High Water in Illinois

Washington, Jan. 25.—Higher water along the Mississippi river within the next fortnight is indicated by the condition of the Mississippi's tributaries, the weather bureau reported tonight. Flood stage in the lower Illinois river in the next 24 hours is a warning issued tonight.

Vicksburg, Miss., Jan. 25.—T torrent two hundred feet wide tonight is rushing through the crevace in Buelah Levee about 100 miles north of here on the east bank of the Mississippi River and the water is rapidly inundating the lowlands. The engineers engaged on the work estimate that before the flood recedes at least 1,000 square miles of plantations and crops will be inundated.

FALLING FLOOR CARRIES THEEE FIREMEN TO BURNING BASEMENT

Men Were First To Enter Building and a Moment After Their Entry the Floor Collapsed.

East St. Louis, Jan. 25.—Three firemen perished in a fire which destroyed the Elks Building here on Collinsville avenue in the heart of the retail district tonight.

The dead:
Lieutenant John Connors.
Fred Ford, pipeman.
Joe Corneis, fireman.

The three men were the first to enter the burning building and a moment after they had carried a line of hose across the threshold the floor of the Gately Clothing store collapsed and the three men were hurled to the basement.

Other firemen groping their way into the basement came across the unconscious forms of Ford and Corneis. Ford died soon after, and Corneis died at midnight. Connors was dead when found.

MORTUAY

Dewees.

Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the late residence, 281 Sandusky street, impressive funeral services were conducted over the remains of Cornelius Dewees, in the presnece of a large assemblage of relatives and friends who gathered to pay a last tribute of respect. The services were conducted in an impressive manner by Rev. Clyde Dargie, pastor of Central Christian church, who delivered a forceful tribute to the life of the deceased. He spoke of Mr. Dewees' long life of Christian service and said that he had been an officer in the church the majority of his life, that his father had been a church officer and that his grandfather was a minister.

"The bright part of his life," he said, "was in his church attendance and his attendance at the meetings of the board of elders. When the last hours came he seemed to step over the river so easily as to make me believe that the partition between here and heaven is only a narrow one and really he has gone into the 'other room' and the door shut behind him. I cannot help but think that the dead are very near us. We are surrounded by a great crowd of witnesses and if our eyes were only a little sharper and our ears better attuned to heavenly music we might see and hear our loved ones near us. The new Jerusalem, the city of God, has come down to earth among men. We have lost them but they have not lost us in this life.

"The training of Brother Dewees had been a most sacred preparation for this step of his out into what to us seems darkness, but to him must now seem the realm of light. He was a good man and 'being dead yet speaketh.'"

Miss Marie Finney and Charles Rowe sang with deep feeling, "Shall We Gather at the River" and "I'll be With You," and Miss Finney sang as a solo, "Home of the Soul," with Mrs. Edgar Martin as accompanist. There was an abundance of beautiful flowers which were cared for by Mrs. G. T. Douglas, Mrs. Hettie Icenogle, Mrs. W. D. Alexander and Miss Georgia Osborne.

Interment was made in Diamond Grove cemetery and the bearers were W. D. Alexander, George Dewees, Norman Dewees, Frank Dewees, C. C. Phelps and Samuel Dewees.

DENY ANY RATE AND SERVICE AGREEMENTS

Owner of Insular Steamship Line Testifies to Rate War in Traffic Between New York and Porto Rico.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Denial that there are rate and service agreements in the steamship trade between New York and Porto Rico was entered before the house shipping trust investigating committee to day by F. Kingsbury Curtis, owner of the Insular Line. Mr. Curtis declared that A. H. Bull, president of the A. H. Bull Steamship company who told the committee recently that the Insular Line belonged to the Coastwise combination and was cutting rates 70 per cent to drive him out of the Porto Rican business, was the aggressor in the fight and that the Insular Line had reduced its rates only in self defense.

The witness sad that while his company and the Red Line had no agreement or understanding, both had tired of constant rates war and as maintenace of approximately the rates for the same service was essental in the steamship business rates in the Porto Rican probably "would go back to what they were before" if the Bull line would drop out or stop rate cutting.

PASSENGERS ARE MAROONED BY SNOW AVALANCHES

Burlington-Great Northern R. R. Travelers Tramp Down Mountain Slope.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 25.—Passengers of a Burlington-Great Northern railroad train from Kansas City reached Scenic, a winter resort in the Cascade mountains, after a long tramp down steep mountain trails late to day, and told of having been marooned by avalanaches since Thursday.

Their train, they said had just thrust its nose out of a long snow shed at Alvin, on the west slope when an avalanche caught the two engines and baggage car. The train had been moving slowly and after the engines and car had been dug out it was found that no one was hurt. An attempt was made to back the train to Spokane but it encountered landclides to the rear; so after a 48 hour wait the passengers started on foot down the mountain to Scenic, where there is a hotel. They will be brought to Seattle. There was plenty of food and fuel on the marooned train and the passengers suffered no hardships. Seven men have been killed on the Great Northern while fighting snow this winter. The avalanches that are coming down the mountains contain trees and boulders as well as snow, and the rotary plows are making little headway in their attempts to clear the line.

WILL LIVE IN NEW YORK CITY.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Olian and little son will leave early this week for New York city, where they are to live and where Mr. Olian will engage in the manufacturing business. Although he has disposed of the Emporium to Mr. Strauss, who is now the sole proprietor, Mr. Olian will act as buyer for the store and Mr. Strauss will thus be afforded unusual advantages in keeping the stocks of the Emporium constantly complete with the very latest from that greatest of all markets, New York City. Two years ago Mr. Olian started the Emporium in Jacksonville and in that comparatively short time established a business which has paid him handsomely. However, he desires a larger field of operations and after considering a number of cities decided upon New York. Mr. Olian is still young but he has had a broad business experience and is successful and capable in merchandizing. He leaves Jacksonville with an excellent record.

WILSON SEES WORKINGS OF THE IMMIGRATION OFFICE

Watches Hundreds of Aliens on Ellis Island as They Stand Waiting Admission to This Country.

New York, Jan. 25.—Hundreds of aliens, many of them still clad in the garb of distant lands, stood before the immigration officials at Ellis Island today seeking admission to the country, while President-elect Wilson observed with a scrutinizing eye the manner of their welcome. Scenes of pathos and of joy were mingled as those physically deficient were turned away or the more fortunate passed successfully through the lanes of inspection into the embraces of waiting friends. It was while observing the last process of the law whereby the officials satisfy themselves that friends seeking the immigrants have a bona fide errand that the party witnessed one of the dramatic incidents so familiar at Ellis Island. A young girl from Poland with a white shawl wrapped about her head was weeping when the president-elect came in. Commissioner Williams explained that the woman had spied her relatives outside the fence of steel behind which the immigrants are kept until duly passed, and was weeping for joy at the sight. The girl stood in line waiting her turn but at the direction of the commissioner her case was taken up at once, her relatives answered satisfactorily the necessary questions and the president-elect saw her dash forward into the arms of a sister, kisses mingled with tears.

Mr. Wilson was an interested spectator throughout. He asked questions continually and observed in detail the methods employed to discover the desirable and undesirable new comers.

The governor and his family later went shopping and took a motor drive through Central park. They will spend tonight and tomorrow with Mrs. Caroline B. Alexander at Hoboken, N. J.

Dr. Sipes has moved his residence and office from 340 East State to 209 East College street.

CHANDLERVILLE TAKEN INTO CAMP

J. H. S. ADDS ANOTHER BASKETBALL VICTORY.

Cass County Quintet Loses One-Sided Contest By Score of 41 to 11—Seniors Win Curtain Raiser From Juniors, 48 to 16.

In a one-sided basketball contest held in Strawn's hall Saturday evening the Chandlerville high school was defeated by Jacksonville high school, the score being 11 to 14. The superiority of the local five is read in the score. The visitors claim that they were not used to playing on a smooth floor and that their hall at home is differently arranged. However, they were lacking in team work and when the opportunity was given to shoot the baskets, they were always heavily guarded.

The score at the end of the first half was 21 to 10 and in the second half Chandlerville gained only one point to Jacksonville's twenty.

Walton Boxell played a star game for Jacksonville making a total of 25 points, 12 field throws and one foul. Maddox made 4 field baskets and Hale, four. Chandlerville made three field baskets and five foul throws out of nine chances. The visitors have won four games this season from the following: Chandlerville alumni, Petersburg, Routt high and Virginia.

The following was the lineups:

Curtain Raiser.

As a curtain raiser the Seniors of the high school played the Juniors, the former winning easily by a score of 48 to 16. The contest was comic from start to finish, no fouls being called and it put the big crowd in splendid humor for the regular game to follow.

The following was the lineups:

Referee and umpire—Furr and Alford(, Illinois).

DUTY ON RAW WOOL BRINGS HOT DEBATE

Protectionists And Tariff Revisionists Debate Wool Tariff Issue

MOST STREUFOUS FIGHT

Make Hard Fight Against Democrat Revision-Republicans Fight for Appointments

OTHER WASHINGTON DOINGS

WASHINGTON, JAN. 27. — Protectionists and tariff revisionists had a running fire of debate in the house ways and means committee today which was continued tonight. The wool tariff was the issue and the manufacturers presented an almost unbroken alignment against reduction of duty on woolen cloth and ready made clothing, though favoring reduction of the duty on raw wool. It was the most strenuous fight made at this session of congress against the Democratic plan for revision of the duties in the coming extra session.

"Your schedule has never been cut in the memory of living men," suggested Representative Palmer, of Pennsylvania, to A. M. Stafford, president of a Cleveland enterprise. Mr. Stafford contended that the tariff could be reduced in the event the Democratic party choses to take the responsibility for a possible reduction of wages of the woolen mill employes. The witness testified to eight per cent dividends from his mill last year and Representative Harrison, of New York suggested that it was rather unbecoming for him, in view of the big profits of the industry to hold out a threat of wage reduction.

Through William Goldman of New York, its president, the National Association of Clothiers, declared that while free wool was desirable, it was too revolutionary and it indorsed the proposed Democratic rate of 20 per cent ad valorem on raw wool. The committee showed no signs during the examination of changing its tentative plan for a revised woolen schedule along the lines of the Democratic bills of the two previous sessions of this congress, which provided for 20 per cent ad valorem on raw wool and from 35 to 50 per cent on cloths, ready made clothing and other articles.

Fight For Confirmation.

The Republican fight for the confirmation of President Tafts 1300 appointments now pending in the senate will come to a head tomorrow when a Republican caucus will be asked by Republican leaders to bind its members to a continuous session behind closed doors in an effort to break down Democratic opposition. The caucus has been called ostensibly to break up the proposal made by the Democrats for a joint committee to weed out the Taft appointments and select certain ones that shall be confirmed. It is understood that prominent Republicans will submit to the caucus a proposed plan by which the members would bind themselves to attempt to hold the senate continuously in session until the Democrats shall be forced to give way and permit a general consideration of all appointments. It is believed tonight that many of the Republicans would not agree to the suggested plan. Since the Democratic fight against the Taft appointees began a number of executive sessions have been held, but the Democrats have kept up a general filibuster and have prevented action on more than three or four nominations. The attitude of individual Republicans indicates that the caucus tomorrow will decline to treat with the Democrats through a joint committee. In case the plans for a continuous filibuster also fails, the situation over the appointments will remain practically unchanged.

Democratic leaders have apparently determined to hold in abeyance all action on appointments until toward the close of February when they believe the Republicans can be forced to agree to the confirmation of the army, navy, consular, marine corps and public health service appointments, leaving the balance to fail by expiration of the session March 4th.

To Inspect the Canal.

Members of the house and senate naval affairs committee will leave here March 5th, on the army transport Sumner for the Panama canal zone to investigate the necessity of barracks for a permanent armed force on the isthmus.

Extends Investigation.

The proposal by Senator Clapp to extend the investigation into campaign expenditures to cover the general election expenses of 1912 was approvd today by the senate committee on contingent expenses.

Debate Agricultural Bill.

Washington, Jan. 27.—After a day of debate between friends of the rival agricultural extension bills in the senate that body adjourned tonight without having acted upon the proposed legislation by which federal

WIFE OF CIVIL WAR FOE TO GENERAL'S AID

MRS. LONGSTREET MAKING EFFORT TO RAISE MONEY

Sheriff Serves Order of Arrest—Lawyer Arranges With Surety Company For $30,000 Bond For Veteran's Freedom.

NEW YORK, JAN. 27.—Mrs. Helen D. Longstreet, widow of the famous confederate general, came to the aid of her husband's civil war foe, General Daniel E. Sickles, today with an effort to raise $23,476 among the "ragged and maimed followers of Lee" to pay Gen. Sickles' alleged debt to the state of New York. Sheriff Harburger, who arrested General Sickles today in the civil suit brought by the state to recover the money, also dictated a letter to many of the richest men in New York, asking them to aid the aged veteran.

In a telegram sent to General Sickles from Gainesville, Ga., Mrs. Longstreet said she had telegraphed to the attorney general of the state of New York that she would raise the money among the confederate veterans if allowed sufficient time.

"The republic whose battles you fought will not permit your degradation," were her closing words to General Sickles. The sheriff addressed his letters to J. P. Morgan, John D. Rockefeller, Andrew Carnegie and the 450 members of the sheriffs panel, composed of wealthy New Yorkers.

Sheriff Serves Papers.

Sheriff Harburger dealt gently with his prisoner. Instead of serving the order of arrest this morning, he waited until General Sickles' lawyer, Daniel P. Hayes, had arranged with a surety company for a $30,000 bond for the veteran's freedom. Mr. Hayes brought it to the sheriffs office and they went to General Sickles' Fifth avenue home during the afternoon.

The sheriff expressed regret he had no choice but to serve the papers. The general said it was all right, and assured the sheriff he considered him one of his best friends.

The bond was placed before the general and he signed it in a flowing hand.

"That handwriting is not so bad for a man who is more than 92 years old, sheriff," he commented. "It cost me $600 to get this bond."

A fee of $50.35 owing the county for service of the papers was paid by the general's housekeeper, Miss Edith Wilmerding. The money was mostly in pennies. The issuance of the bond makes it unnecessary for the sheriff to place General Sickles in jail as he feared Saturday he might have to do. The sheriff said this afternoon he thought the case would be speedily brought to trial at Albany.

Mrs. Longstreet's Statement.

Gainesville, Ga., Jan. 27.—Mrs. Helen D. Longstreet, after her readiness to assist General Daniel E. Sickles in his financial difficulties, said:

"My husband always spoke of Gen. Sickles as the hero of Gettysburg. General Longstreet in the last autograph letter he ever wrote, Sept. 19th, 1902, to General Sickles told him that the taking of the peach orchard by Sickles' corps won the battle for the union forces.

"It was General Longstreet's detachment that shot off the leg of the brave union general, but as General Longstreet said 'Sickles can well afford to leave a leg at Gettysburg, for he has made sure his place for ever in the hearts of Americans.'

"I have made no plans as yet, but if General Sickles needs my aid, and the aid of the south, he will get it."

Senator Would Aid.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 27.—"It is shocking to think that the state is pursuing such a war hero with a body execution. In England, the British government would vote him from 5,000 to 50,000 pounds sterling."

So declared Republican Leader Brown of the senate tonight in announcing that tomorrow he would introduce a resolution designed to provide for a legislative investigation of the facts concerning the alleged shortage of $23,576 in the accounts of Daniel E. Sickles as chairman of the state monuments commission, with possible relief for the veteran. "I believe that General Sickles should not be treated like an ordinary state employe under such circumstances,' said Senator Brown. "During the last twenty years he has spent over $500,000 for the state without accepting a cent for his services. Less worthy cases have been generously dealt with in the past by the state. I believe a thorough investigation is warranted."

ADD 10 PER CENT DAMAGES.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The supreme court today not only dismissed the appeal of George Mengel of Scott county, Ia., from the refusal of the Iowa courts to enjoin the sale of his property to satisfy alimony to his wife, but added 10 per cent damages, under the rule which authorizes such to be done where it appears an appeal was sued out merely for delay. Mrs. Mengel has due her $3,450.

SOLDIERS LOST ARE FROZEN IN BLIZZARD.

Billings, Mont., Jan. 27.—Two privates of the company of soldiers stationed at Fort Yellowstone in Yellowstone National park, who disappeared while on duty January 22, were found today badly frozen. They lost their way in a blizzard which began shortly after they left the fort. The men will recover, it is said.

TODAY'S BALLOT WILL TEST RAPP STRENGTH

Ability to Hold Members Who Voted for Him Thursday May Break Deadlock

MUST HOLD HIS VOTES

In Case Rapp Forces Weaken Karch May be Given Another Tryout in Race

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE RESTS

DUNNE FORCES TO AID RAPP.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—All of the Dunne forces in the lower house will be concentrated tomorrow in an attempt to make John M. Rapp, of Fairfield, speaker, William L. O'Connell, Governor-elect Dunne's representative in the speakership fight, said tonight.

"Yes we are going to try to put Rapp over tomorrow," O'Connell said. "He always has been acceptable to Judge Dunne and he has received the largest number of votes to date. Therefore, we think he should be made speaker.

"I am certain that the twenty-five Progressive will be with us and we feel that we should be able to obtain enough of the seventy-three Democratic votes in the lower house to elect Rapp.

The governor-elect tonight said he believed the end of the speakership fight was near.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., JAN. 27.—Upon ability to hold the 69 members who voted for him on the 55th and 56th ballots last Thursdays, depends Representative John M. Rapp's chance to break the deadlock in the Illinois legislature this week and win the speakership of the house of representatives. This is the view that was taken of the situation here to-tonight. Unless Rapp can start off in the balloting tomorrow afternoon with about the same vote that he received on the last ballot on Thursday, it seems equally certain that he will be out of the running. In that event Charles A. Karch of Belleville is likely to be given another tryout. After him, according to the gossip here tonight, Representative John C. Richardson of Christian county, or Representative Everett L. Ewerts of Oquaqka, are likely to be entered as speakership possibilities.

Representative Richardson is the head of the faction which has been voting for William A. Hubbard. While he has been talked of as a receptive candidate, Richardson's name has not been mentioned with his authority as a candidate for the speakership.

His friends say that unless Representative Rapp wins tomorrow Mr. Richardson is likely to come out openly tomorrow night.

Rapp's Chances Lessened.

The Anti-Saloon League of Illinois, which last week took a hand in the speakership fight in the legislature, when it attempted to break the Republican ranks by urging several Republican "drys" to vote for Representative Rapp, the Democratic candidate, appears today to be taking a different view of the situation and probably will keep hands off in the future.

Without the aid of the Anti-Saloon league, Representative Rapp's chances of election this week are lessened rather than improved. One of the hopes of his friends and supporters was that he would be able to get a number of dry Republicans to vote for him. With the "wet" and "dry" issue eliminated on the Republican side there appears to be but little chance for a breaw in the Republican ranks. In consequence the full Republican strength in the house, totaling 50 votes, will continue to vote for Homer J. Tice, of Greenview, for speaker.

Such "dry" Republicans as Thomas E. Lyon of Sangamon, George H. Wilson of Quincy, Norman E. Flagg of Moro and Clayton C. Pervier of Sheffield have told the anti-saloon league leaders that Tice is dry enough for them and that they cannot leave him even at the behest of the league to vote for a Democrat. So far the "wet" and "dry" issue is the only thing that has caused a waiver among the Republicans.

TEMPERANCE ADVOCATES WIN DECISIVE VICTORY.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 27—The temperance advocates in the lower house of the Iowa legislature won a decisive victory over the liquor forces today, when the vote was taken on the memorial to congress, asking for the enactment of the Kenyon-Sheppard bill prohibiting the shipment of liquor into dry territory. The resolution for the memorial was adopted by a vote of 70 to 24.

The senate designated tomorrow as "suffrage day" when it adopted a concurrent resolution to hear Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, president of the Illinois State Federation of Women's clubs, on the subject.

THORPE ADMITS CHARGE OF PROFESSIONALISM

SENDS CONFESSION IN LETTERS TO AMATEUR ATHLETIC UNION

Will Forfeit All Prizes and Honors Gained Since 1909 the Date From Which His Standing as a Professional Begins.

NEW YORK, JAN 27.—James Thorpe, the Indian athlete and Olympic champion, to day admitted that charges of professionalism brought against him were true and formally retired from amateur athletics. Thorpe's confession contained in a letter to the registration committee of the Amateur Athletic Union which met to day to investigate his case.

The letter admitted that Thorpe had played baseball for a salary on a professional team three year ago while a student of the Carlisle Indian school but that on the same team were several Northern college men who were regarded as amateurs and Thorpe did not realize his participation was wrong. Thorpe added that he did not play for the money he earned, but for the love of the game.

Thorpe's winnings of the peutathlon and decathlon events at the Olympic games in Stockholm and later his wonderful performance which won for him the all-around championship of the A. A. U., at Celtic Park last September had stamped him the most marvelous all-around athlete of modern times. In addition of this prowess, as a football player had earned for him last season by unamious choice of leading sporting writers the position of half back on the All-American football team.

Will Lose Prizes and Honors.

All the prizes and honors which Thorpe has gained since 1909—the date from which his standing as a professional begins—must be transferred through the officials of the Amateur Athletic Union to the men who finished second to the Indian in every event. This will mean that trophies and points won in the peutothlon and decathlon must be given respectively to P. R. Bio, Norway and H. Weislander, Sweden, and that J. J. Donahue, United States and G. Lemberg, Sweden will take second places. John Bredemus of Princeton, finishing second to Thorpe in the American all-around championship and Bruno Brodt of the Irish-American A. C., third, and therefore now must be accorded the honors. In this championship Thorpe made a total of 7,476 points and broke the former record of Martin Sheridan by 95 points.

The loss of the six pooints scored by Thorpe in the Olympic games, still leaves the United States winner by a wide margin, however, the total standing of the United States, 79; with Finland in second place with 29.

TO ELIMINATE POLITICAL PARTIES FROM CITY AFFAIRS IN CHICAGO

Los Angeles Plan Bill Being Prepared for Presentation to Legislature This Winter.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Non-partisan elections and the elimination of political parties from city affairs n Chicago are planned in a bill being prepared by corporation Counsel William H. Sexton for presentation to the Illinois legislature this winter. The bill is said to have been ordered drafted by Mayor Harrison who will submit it to the city council for approval before its introduction in the legislature.

The most radical feature of the proposed measure is patterned after what is known as the Los Angeles plan, and provides that if any candidate in the primary receives a majority of the votes cast that candidate shall be immediately declared elected so as to do away with the expense of two elections which are held under the present government.

ELECTORAL VOTE OF ARIZONA NOT RECEIVED AT WASHINGTON

Messenger Bearing Credentials Left Phoenix Ten Days Ago and Has Disappeared.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The electoral vote of Arizona and its bearer had not appeared at the office of the vice-president at six o'clock this evening, the time limit, had expired, for receiving returns from the national election last November. Ever electoral vote except Arizona's is on file. Wilfred T. Webb, the custodian of Arizona's vote, left Phoenix with his credentials more than ten days ago and was due to arrive here Saturday. Webb was last heard from in St. Louis four or five days ago, but his friends could get no word of him here tonight, and through telegrams inquiry have been sent broadcast no word from the missing messenger has been received.

The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail, are on hand, and it is probable, that the penalty will not be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervously awaiting developments.

FRUIT WILL BE EXAMINED.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Twenty-two cars of California oranges were stopped in a railroad yard here today by Dr. B. E. Sherman, of the city food inspection bureau. Samples of the fruit will be examined to ascertain if they are fit to be sold in this city.

SULZER RECOMMENDS REFORM MEASURES

State Supervision of Stock Exchanges Advocated by Governor

TIME IS RIPE FOR CHANGE

State Should End "Clever Combinations" And Schemes to Mislead the Publid

MANY MEASURES SUGGESTED

ALBANY, N. Y., JAN 27.—State supervision regulation of the stock exchange and other stock exchanges are advocated by Governor Sulzer in a message sent by him to the legislature tonight.

The time is ripe in the governor's opinion for the state to step in and end "flagrant abuses, shifty schemes and clever combinations to catch the unwary and to mislead the public." To effect this, he recommends the enactment of a group of laws, at least one of which shall provide imprisonment as a penalty for its vollation. These laws, the governor says, should apply to certain practices which have been shown to exist by the Pujo committee of the house of representatives and other investigators.

"The testimony of some of the governors of the exchanges," Governor Sulzer says, "leaves no doubt in the minds of men of judgment that the exchanges have been either incapable or unwilling to devise measures that will effectively eradicate the evils."

Further along the governor says:

"It is now conceded by some of the officials that a gambling taint is present in some of the transactions —a concessions that confirms the general opinion. It has been established that transactions in their nature fictitious, which make manipulations possible are carried on without serious attempts at restraint.

"Abuses of the mechanism and violations of just and equitable of trading, are treated leniently instead of being vigorously condemned."

Again he declares:

"It seems to be the necessary machinery of these exchanges is often employed with impunity by or through members to commit depredations upon the public," and insists that these things must be stopped.

Measures Recommended.

Among the measures which Governor Sulzer would have enacted into low are:

"A law to distinguish clearly proper transactions of purchase and sale from those that are the result of combinations to raise or depress artificially the price of securities without regard to their true value or legitimate supply and demand. A law to permit brokers from selling back and foward among themselves blocks of particular stock with intent to deceive or mislead outside. A law to prohibit brokers from selling for their own account the same stocks they have ordered to buy for their customers at the time the customers orders are executed.

"A law clearly prohibiting insolvent brokers from continuing to buy and sell after they become insolvent.

"A law making it a criminal offence 'to issue any statement or publish any advertisement as to the value of any stock or othe rsecurity' os as to the financial condition of any corporation or company issuing or about to issue stock or securities, where any promise or prediction contained in such statement or advertisement is shown to be false or to be not fairly justified by existing conditions."

Governor Sulzer also recommends but leaves to the legislature for decision changes in existing laws and the enactment of new laws governing short sales, the hypothecation of securities, bucketshops, usury (under which head he classes the raising of call money rates to more than six per cent) the relations between exchanges and the consolidation of exchanges.

I. H. COR. TAKES OVER FOREIGN PROPERTIES

NEW CORPORATION FORMED FOR TAKING OVER FOREIGN BUSINESS

Articles Incorporating International Harvester Corporation with Capital of $70,000,000 are Filed With Secretary of State of New Jersey.

TRENTON, N. J. JAN 27.—Articles incorporating the International Harvester corporation with an authorized capital of $70,000,000, were filed with the secretary of state this afternoon, the incorporators being men actively connected with the the International Harvester company, a concern already chartered under the laws of New Jersey, with an authorized capital of $140,000,000. In connection with the filing of the articles of incorporation there was filed with the secretary of state a letter from the International Harvester company signed by its president Cyrus H. McCormick stating that the company had no objection to making use of practically the same title by the International Harvester company.

The incorporators are Harold F. McCormick and William J. Lauderback, Chicago; William L. Saunders, Plainfield, N. J.; John ' Chapman, Chicago and Clarence F. Gregory and Robert H. Neilson, New York.

McCormick's Statement.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—The following statement was made to day by Cyrus H. McCormick, president of the International Harvester company, regarding the organization of the "International Harvester corporation."

"The new corporation has been formed for the purpose of taking over the business and properties of the International Harvester company in foreign countries, including the manufacturing plants in Canada, France Sweden, Germany and Russia. In view of the pending suit of the government against the company which may not be ended for a considerable time as the case may go to the supreme court of the United States for final settlement, this action has been deemed necessary for the protection of the company's foreign trade and credit. In order to maintain this credit unimpaired in the new corporation it was decided to transfer to the new corporation in addition to the foreign properties the following plants in the United States: Akron Works, Akron, Ohio; Milwaukee Works, Milwaukee, Wis.; Newark Valley Works, Newwark, N. Y.; and the Plano, Tractor and Weber Works located in Chicago.

"No harvesting machinery or binder twine is made at these plants. All the plants manufacturing harvesting machinery or any products made by the company at the date of its organization in 1902 will continue to be owned and operated by the International Harvester company.

"This action taken by the company is in the direction of the demands made by the government, but is not a solution of any of the questions at issue and is not expected to have any effect upon the pending suit.

"This action has not been influenced in any way by the proposed amendments in the corporation laws of New Jersey. The board of directors authorized the formation of the new corporation more than six months ago, and in December last directed the change to be immediately carried into effect."

Will Not Affect Government Suit

Washington, Jan. 27.—Edwin P. Grosvenor, special assistant to Attorney General Wickersham, who has charge of the government's case against the International Harvester company, when shown the Associated Press despatch from Trenton, N. J., tonight announcing the incorporation of the International Harvester corporation, issued a statement in which he said the change would not affect the government's suit for the reason that "government charges a monopoly of domestic commerce in harvesting machinery and under this reorganization plan all the domestic harvester business is retained by the parent company. The only domestic business transferred is the business in the so-called new lines, engines, cream separators, traction, manure spreaders and wagons. The government also charges that the rapid expansion by the harvester company of its business in this country in these new lines has been largely due to its monopoly of harvesting machinery."

He thought the aim of the defendants is to bring the properties into what they believe will be a better position to meet the decree of dissolution when that suit commences.

PRESIDENT RECEIVES GIFT FROM THE SOUTH.

Washington, Jan. 27.—President Taft received a present tonight of a silver box containing resolutions of regard from a number of sections in the south. The gift was made in connection with the visit of the president and Mrs. Taft to the charity ball given by the southern relief society. It was in recognition of Mr. Taft's complimentary references to the south in his speech before the United Daughters of the confederacy some months ago.

ALLIES PROPOSE TO END CONFERENCE

Balkan Plenipotentiaries Draft Final Note For Turkish Government

SEEK TO DELAY CONFLICT

Note Points Out That Allies See no Alternative But to Terminate Peace Conference

RECHAD REGRETS THE MOVE

LONDON, JAN 27.—A special committee nappointed by the Balka plenipotentiaries drafted a note to day notifying the Turkish plenipotentiaries that they propose to break off the peace negotiations. The note was not admitted to the Balkan delegations, which held no meeting to day. Instead the delegates gave a luncheon in celebration of the Saint Day of Saba, the patron of the orthodox church. The note as drafted reminds the Turks that since January 6th, the sittings of the peace conference have been suspended without Turkey making any move towards their resumption, while events in Constantinople are the best proof of that Turkey's answer to the allies concerning Adrianople and the Aegean Islands will be negative. On this account, unless the Turkish delegation has fresh alternative but definitely to break off the negotiations. A meeting will be held Tuesday for the purpose of examining the note. Thus another day will be gained before facing the uestion of re-opening the war.

Regrets Allies' Obstinacy.

Rechad Pasha, head of the Turkish delegation, in an interview tonight said he deeply regretted the obstinacy of the allies which he declared was not only against Turkey's but against heir own true interests. He added:

"This obstinacy is the more regretted because while Burgaria does not need Adrianople, either for defensixe or ective purposes the town is indespensable to Turkey on account of hsitoric, sentimental and religious associations. In fact Turkey would be wealker from a military point of view possessng Adrianople than without it as the present war proves for a whole army is now mobilized inside that fortress.

"Turkey has shown a yielding spirit owards the allies, ceding a larger area than their own countries before the war.

"What was the use of assembling a conference if the allies determined to make concessions whatever. The object of all conferences always has been to find a compromise through mutual giving way."

Thousands Starring.

The Constantinople chapter of the American Red Cross society has just cabled to the national headquarters at Washington a pressing appeal in beheaf of the suffering non-combatants in the Balkan war signed by United States Ambassador William Rickhill and others. Seventy five per cent of the refugees are women and children. Large sums must be immediately obtained from Europe and America if these people are not to sarve the appeal says.

"Attempt Intimidation."

Constantinople, Jan. 27.—Prince Said Halim, president of the council of state and secretary of the committee of Union and Progress has been appointed minister or foreign affairs.

It is reported that a German bank will give Turkey financial aid in return but the bank denies this report.

The acting foreign minister charcterizes the allies proposal to denounce the armistice as another example of attempted intimidation to which Turkey is becoming accustomed.

MESSRS. SWARTHOUT HEARD IN BRILLIANT RECITAL

Delight Audience at Woman's College Last Night in Superb Program.

Lovers of music in Jacksonville were given a rare treat last night when Max L. Swarthout, violinist, and director of the College of Music and Donald M. Swarthout, pianist were heard in a brilliant recital.

The program was arranged showing three distinct schools of music. In the first selection for piano and violin the French school was protrayed, in the second, the Scandanavian and in the piano group the Russian school. Those who are acquainted with the musical composition of these schools can attest to the high grade productions found therein.

In the first number the Messrs. Swarthout had ample opportunity to display their wonderful ensemble work. The Saint-Saens number is worked out along very fine lines and the delicate shading of the number and the unison work of the performers was a delight to the audience, as it has been in their splendid performances of the past.

Mr. Max Swarthout gave a number that is not often heard among violinist as it calls for a wonderful display of technic, broad intrepretation and mastery in harmony. In all these points Mr. Swarthout displayed his skill in a wonderful manner and at the close was compelled to respond to an encore giving "Viennesse Waltz" by Kreisler.

The last number on the program was a piano group by Mr. Donald Swarthout. This selection just bristles wth technical difficulties and the player handled the passages in a masterly manner and the peculiar rhythm was worked out in a way that showed wonderful inerpreting powers. An encore he gave "Intermezzo" by Brahms. It is needless to say that audience was liberal in applause and words of praise were heard on every side.

The following was the program:

Piano and Violin—
Sonata Op. 102 ..... Saint-Saens
I. Poco allo piu tosto moreato.
II Scherzo (Vivace)
III Andante—Allegretto scherzando—Andante.
IV All grazios, non presto

Violin—
Concerton in A Major, Op 45 ..... Sinding
I Allegro energico—
II Andante—
III Allegro giocoso

Piano—
*Concerto in B-flat Minor, Op. 23 ..... Tschaikowsky
I Andante non troppo—Allegro con spirito.
II Anate semplice—Prestissimo—Tempo I.
III Allegro con fuoco—Molto meno mosso

*Orchestral accompanimert on second piano.

SHIPS FIRST WIFE TO RUSSIA ON SECOND WIFE'S $80 DOWRY

But Wife Number One Does Not Like Supporting Children Alone and Comes Back to Make Trouble.

New York, Jan. 27.—When his wife became homesick four years ago Paul Steinberg, with her consent, married a younger woman and used the $80 dowery she brought him to send his first wife back to Russia. This was the story Steinberg told today when arraigned in court on a bigamy charge. Their plan promised well until the first Mrs. Steinberg decided to return to New York. She had trouble supporting her five children and sought aid from the father. Steinberg grew tired of this and stopped payments. Then his first wife had him arrested. The court thought Steinberg's story so unusual that sentence was postponed to permit further investigation.

AUTOMOBILE MOST DANGEROUS WEAPON CRIMINALS EVER USED

Judge McAdoo Recommends Strigent Laws to Curb Use of Autos—Advocates Finger Print Method.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—"The automobile is the most dangerous weapon ever used by criminals", said William G. McAdoo, chief justice of the magistrate's court of New York in an address to the judges of the municipal court here to day.

Use of the automobile must be surbed, chauffeurs must be identified by finger prints and ubjected to a rigid character test. "A finger" law of wide application to every person found guilty of any offense, must be enacted. These were rcommendations of Judge McAdoo, and in addition he said detectives and the Uniformed force of police should be so far apart that they do not not even know each other by sight.

LETTER FROM BERLIN.
(By Associated Press.)

Berlin, Jan. 27. — Illegitimate children in Berlin are henceforward to be under the official guardianship of the municipality, and the fathers of such offspring are to be compelled, by representatives of the city to support them.

This departure is one of the latest experiments of Berlin in the direction of municipal socialism.

Until recently guardians for such children were selected from citizens, wherever it was possible to obtain suitable persons for this function, but the difficulties of finding them were so great, owing to the steady increase in the number of illegitimates, that the city government finally decided to establish a special office to look after the guardianships for them.

This new bureau is to be conducted in a thoroughly systematic manner. It will be supplied with four officials whose business it is to act as professional guardians. One of these officials already has become guardian for 3,100 children. Additional guardians will be appointed as the duties of the bureau increase. One of the chief tasks of the guardians is to see that the fathers of the children carry out the orders of the courts in paying for the support of the children, and to bring suits at court to compel payment in cases of default.

There is a new raven in the cage of the historic raven of Merseburg in Prussian Saxony. The number in succession of the new bird is not recorded, but it occupies a place that has held a raven since the middle ages, in consequence of the contrition of a certain knight of Merseburg who condemned to death an innocent man.

Thilo von Trotha was the lord of this section in the middle ages. One day he missed from his room some jewelry, accused a man servant of stealing it and had him beheaded in the courtyard. Before his decapitation the condemned man proclaimed his innocence and declared that he would reassert it after death by raising his arms above his shoulders. Tradition declares that he did this.

Some months later the missing jewels were found in a raven's nest. Thilo von Trotha thereupon ordered that for all time a raven should be kept in the courtyard, and the raven just put into the cage is the successor of that first bird. The arms of the von Trothas have a quartering showing a headless human trunk with the arms raised.

German manufacturers have no intention, if they can help it, of losing any of their export trade with South America, and they are, even today, preparing to meet the increased trade competition that they foresee will come south of the Isthums with the completion of the Panama canal.

Merchants, manufacturers and scientific men have founded at Bonn a society called the "German South American Institute" to establish closer trade relations with Latin America.

An extensive program has been laid out, regular publication will be issued in German, Spanish and Portuguese, covering elaborate investigations of commercial, financial, agricultural, geographical, geological and mineralogical problems. Divisions have been organized for all the leading South American countries, and also for Mexico.

CHILD FATALLY BURNED.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 27.—Frank DeMay, aged 15 months, was fatally burned today. The child's clothes caught fire from the kitchen stove and was a mass of flames when discovered by his mother. Mrs. DeMay was seriously burned when attempting to extinguish the fire.

Scott P. Carter and C. C. Carter have received word of the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Julia A. Carter at her home in Bluffs. She is suffering with pneumonia. Her sons will go to her bed side today.

WEST SIDE SQUARE

REVIVAL STARTS UNDER FAVORABLE AUSPICES

Much Interest Manifested in Opening Services at Grace M. E. Church, Under Leadership of Pastor, Rev. J. W. Miller.

The opening services of the revival meeting at Grace M. E. church bespeaks a wonderful series of gatherings in the history of the organization. There was a large audience present last night and the large chorus choir, which completely filled the choir loft gave some splendid music, J. Philip Read presiding at the organ and the chorus being led by the pastor. Rev. E. B. Houck lead in the opening prayer. At the close of the services the following heads of committees were named and they will work in groups in conjunction with the pastor for the interest of the meetings. They will meet at 7 oclock every other night at the church, commencing tonight, for prayer and consultation. The first leader will have the names from A to L and the second from M. to Z.

Groups of older men—William McCullough, J. W. Breckon.

Groups of younger men—A. T. Capps, Paul Fritchey.

Groups of women—Mrs. Charles Hopper, Mrs. Edwards.

Groups of young women—Miss Elizabeth Groves and Miss Louise Capps.

Groups of girls—Miss Lenota Johnson and Mrs. J. W. Miller.

Rev. Mr. Miller gave to his audience the key note of the revival meeting in the text taken from Jeremiah 32-17, "There is nothing too hard for God." He said in part:

The old prophet was in prison when he made this statement. There is a good place to hear and see things spiritual. Out of the darkness of prison good men have looked and have seen stars of hope invisible to others. The old prophet emphasizes the fact of God's almightyness. "Hast thou not known". There is the appeal to memory. Recall the history of Israel and see the mighty deliverances God's hand wrought for his people. Re-read the history of the Christian church and see again the mighty works of God for the preservation of his chosen ones.

Is God almighty? Then we have no fear but that this material world will remain until his will is accomplished. There shall be the return of the seasons. Rain and sunshine will be given. It will be thus with all his works.

Is God almighty? Then there need be no fear of the failure with all his promises. Some of them almost stagger our faith. Sometimes we are inclined to weaken them in our interpretation. Let God interpret his own promises. He will prove every one of them from our lives if we trust him. His promises are the pledges of his love.

Is God almighty? Then the throne of right will yet stand upon the ruins of wrong. We must allow him time to work his plans. It may not be in our time but the victory is sure to come. God laughs at the wicked schemes of men. He holds them in derision. How great is the folly of men in their opposition to God. What disaster and failure awaits his enemies.

Is God almighty? There is no escape from his judgments. Men escape for a time. But sooner or later they are brought to some judgment seat. When a man starts in a course of sin he might as well make up his mind at the beginning that he will be discovered and punished. Escape is a delusion of the devil. This God's world and he reigns and there is no such thing as escaping the judgment of sin. "Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap" If he wants to punish there are none too lofty. Witness Nebechudnezzar Herod, Charles IX of France. If desires to honor there are none too lowly as we see in the history of Joseph and Daniel.

Jeremiah declares the all wisdom of God as a further argument. Then if he is allwise then our individual case is well understood. We do not understand ourselves always. We generally misunderstand each others needs. God knows our possibilities He knows the way we should go. Would that we would give him control. How many trust important matters with their fellow men. Why not trust life and all its greater and lesser interests in the hands of the Almighty and Allwise God?

If God is allwise then the darkest providences of our lives have a meaning that we will one day understand.

If God is allwise then the plan of salvation is complete and final. We had better not try to mend it. Better accept it. There has never been found a case that it will not cover. It saves for the present. It fits for the future. O happy and peaceful the life that rests all upon the power and wisdom of the Heavenly Father. There is victory for the present life and a life immortal.

How great is the encouragement of the text for the present work we have before us? God can save the worst man in Jacksonville. He can save the best man also, and the latter some times is a harder job than the former. Here is great encouragement for the christian worker. He may undertake anything in the name of the Lord. There is great hope here for the sinner for he may believe that there is no depths to which the power and love of God will not go to save the lost.

Rev. Mr. Miller announced as his subject for Tuesday night: "God's Call for Volunteers,'

Sunday Services.

Both the morning and evening services were largely attended and the music by the large choir was inspiring. The sermon of the evening was based on the text from Isaiah 53-6, "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.' The sermon was a forceful one and heard with interest.

STORES BURGLARIZED.

Small Losses Sustained by Three East State Street Establishments.

Burglars were busy sometime Sunday night or Monday morning in three houses on East State street, The Badger Drug Store, Shannahan &Shannahan's grocery and Louis Piepenbrings' grocery. From the Badger Store two or three dollars was taken from the cash register and several fountain pens are missing. In the Shannahan store the thieves took $2.00 or $2.50 from the register and a number of cans of sardines. At the Piepenbring store nothing seems to be missing but a box of cigars. From all indications the law-breakers were after money and didn't care to take goods to any great value. At the Piepenbrings store entrance was made by breaking a glass at the front door and at the other establishments entrances was effected zy breaking glass in the rear windows and then opening the doors. Two persons who live above the Shannahan store told the police that they heard people talking in the store room below and that the visitors were there for some time but nothing particular was thought of the matter.

A nurse at the Passavant hospital heard the sound of breaking blass at the Piepenbring store across the street and subsequently saw the flash of a light through the stove door and consequently the matter was not then reported to the police.

It was discovered Monday morning that the cigar case in the C. & A. station had been broken into and a number of cigars taken. No money is left in the case over night.

Merchant Policeman Jerry Sweeney in making his rounds discovered at 2:30 Monday morning that the Badger and Shanahan stores had been entered and notified the proprietors.

HORSE WAS STOLEN.

Sunday night a horse and surrey owned by Joseph Walter was taken from Northminster church while Mr. Walter and the members of his family were attending the services. Mr. Walter notified the police and after a search they found the horse and surrey in an alley near the square. It is thought that some boys drove the animal around the city when they got tired of riding, left the horse in the alley.

aid would be given to vocational and agricultural work throughout the country. Senator Page of Vermont, backing the bill which he has had before the senate since early in 1911, held the floor throughout much of the day against Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia, sponsor for the bill, which passed the house under the leadership of Congressman Lever of South Carolina. As a substitute for the Smith-Lever bill, Senator Page offered a revision form of his own measure.

Insufficient Evidence.

Attorney General Wickersham issued a statement tonight explaining that he had withheld service of the warrants for the arrest of John D. Archibold, W. C. Teagle and H. C. Folger Jr., of the Standard Oil, for the alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust law in Texas, because the evidence upon which the Dallas indictments were based seemed insufficient. The matter has been further investigated and more testimony produced, but it has not yet been acted upon.

Inauguration Plans Ready.

Only the signature of President Taft is now needed to the resolution of congress authorizing the inaugural committee to carry out his plan for the ceremonies incident to the inauguration of President-elect Wilson. The resolution already approved by the house passed the senate today.

As passed the resolution contained no amendment, as requested by a delegation of woman suffrage advocates for the erection of a special stand south of the treasury department to be used in cnnection with the suffrage parade March 3, because arrangements had been made whereby the war department making no objection, the stand will be erected as requested by the women.

The Wilson club of Trenton, N. J., is to have a post of honor in the parade as the "Original Wilson Club," according to inaugural committee officials. The Wilson club of Staunton, Va., the president-elect's birthplace, was a contender for this honor but it has been found that many of the members of the club are to march in the parade as members of military organizations of Virginia, and that the club will not enter the parade as an organization.

Inaugural committee officials estimate that the governors of three-fourths of the states east of the Mississippi will attend the inauguration and participate in the parade and that governors of one-half of the states west of the Mississippi will also be here. General Wood, grand marshal of the inaugural parade, today completed the organization of his staff with the selection of two additional aides decampe. They are J. D. Bloodgood, commander of the department of the Potomac, G. A. R., and J. A. Costello, commander of the department of the District of Columbia, United Spanish War Veterans.

A BATTLE OF LONG AGO.

A day or two ago since Uncle George Tandy clipped from a paper the following:

Monroe, Mich.: "One hundred years ago today this place, then called Frenchtown, was the scene of a bloody conflict between the Americans on one side and a force of British and Indians on the other. The town was in possession of the British and was captured by the Americans under Gen. Wilnchester. Four days later, however, the place was retaken by the British under General Proctor, and General Winchester and his force were captured. The second conflict was followed by an Indian slaughter that is known in history as the River Raisin massacre."

Mr. Tandy says his father was in that battle, was wounded and carried away captive by the Indians and held a long time They made him a burden bearer and menial servant. When they went hunting he would be taken along to carry in the game and occasionally they would permit him to rest a short time and then commanded him to go on. He was closely guarded and as it would have been certain death to be captured in an attampt to escape he didn't try it.

Finally the war was over and he was set free and found his way to Detroit and then to his home in Kentucky. He had been given up for dead long before and as he had been disfigured by the loss of an eye and other wounds on his face no one knew him for a while. He never overcame his dislike for Indians whom he detested thoroughly. He used to tell of his adventures and experiences until Uncle George says the hair of the children would almost stand up.

Martin and they were assisted by the following who acted as waiters: J. Myers Weber, A. W. Baldwin, C. H. Goody, Herman Ellis, Carl H. Weber, W. C. Howe and Verne Wilson.

PLAN TO MERGE BELL AND WESTERN-UNION

E. J. HOWELLS MAY BE MANAGER OF BOTH COMPANIES.

Well Founded Rumor Gains Headway When Central Union Officials Visit City Monday—Messrs. Howells and Miller of Telephone Company Receive Promotions.

C. H. Rottger, commercial superintendent and F. J. Dolan, special agent, both officials of the Central Union Telephone company with headquarters in Springfield, were in the city yesterday and it is understood that their business was relative to the rumored consolidatiaon of the Central Union and Western Union offices in this city.

For some time various stories have been afloat concerning the merging of the offices of these two companies in this city and at one time it is known that the companies intended erecting a building here, but that after looking over several sites this plan was abandoned. This latest rumor is qute well founded and while matter has not been definitely announced it is understood that this part of the program is a mere matter of form that will be gone through with at a meeting in Chicago early next week and that all necessary arrangements for the consolidation have been practically completed.

Ground Floor Offices.

With both of these offices in one building this will give E. J. Howells local manager for the Central Union Telephone company entire supervision over the business of both companies. The offices of both companies will be placed on the ground floor, in the room where the Western Union now has its office and here will be located the onices and toll stations of the telephone company, an arrangement much more convenient for patrons. This system has been tried and is now in vogue in Terre Haute Ind., and would without doubt prove as successful in this city as it has there.

If this plan is brought to a realization J. L. Pine, the present efficient manager of the Western Union will still be retained in the service and will have charge of the telegraph work. Mr. Pine has been with the company for a long period of years and has proven himself a trusted and valuable employe.

Mr. Howells Receives Promotion.

Announcement was made Monday of a new plan for re-districting the state by the officers of the Central Union Telephone company, and according to this new arrangement. Jacksonville is to be the center of the Jacksonville District with Mr. Howells the district commercial manager and J. C. Miller, the local plant chief as district plant chief. Heretofore Illinois has been comprised of only four districts and Springfield has been headquarters for the district in which this city was located. In the new plan, which is effective February 1, there are fourteen districts in the state, and the territory in Jacksonville district comprises the countites of Calhoun, Greene, Morgan, Scott, Cass and part of Brown and Schuyler.

Under this new arrangement the business transacted at Beardstown and its sub-exchanges, and Carrollton with its sub-exchanges will be handled through the local office, instead of through Springfield as is the case now. All the business through connecting exchanges will also be handled through the local office.

While the new plan will not increase the force at the local offices at present, it will probably necessitate additional help for a time after it is put in effect. The company is preparing to install what is called the centralized accounting system in its offices April 1, and when this is made effective there will be no books kept at the local office, all of the ledgers being kept at the offices in Springfield.

Appointments Well Deserved.

The appointments of Mr. Howells to the post of district commercial manager and that of Mr. Miller to district plant chief are both district promotion for these gentlemen, in recognition of their efficient work in their different departments. Mr. Howells has been with the Central Union for the past twelve years and prior to coming to this city about two years ago, he was working under C. H. Rottger, commercial superintendent in Springfield. Under Mr. Howells management the local service has been brought to a high degree of efficiency and the new position opens up for him a field of larger possibilities. Mr. Miller has also proved himself an efficient plant chief and the friends of both gentleman will congratulate them and wish them a continuance of success.

Science is donig wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. WRITES FROM CALCUTTA

Interesting Letter From Rev. Melville Kennedy Now in Y. M. C. A. Work in the Great City of India.

In the following interesting letter Rev. Melville Kennedy relates his first experience in the far east. He is to be engaged in Y. M. C. A. work and has already made a start. In a letter Miss Mary W. Storrs, sister of Prof. H. E. Storrs, said she had met him and was much pleased with him.

Calcutta, India.

Dear Mother and All:

My last card to you was mailed on the boat the night before we reached Bombey. That was not a very restful night, for the noise of preparation continued late and began at 4 a. m. We anchored about 5 a. m. in the harbor.

We had early breakfast and after finishing up the packing, we went ashore about 8:30. Getting through customs was easy, as our papers had been made out on board and were waiting for us all passed on. No duties on personal baggage, we have nothing else with us. The Y. M. C. A. secretary met us at the dock and took us to one of the association buildings, although, to be sure I had sent a wirtless engaging hotel room. I cannot describe the first impressions. The swarming Indian porters, the seeming confusion at the dock, with countless pieces of baggage, the shouting "gari" men (cab men) and all the accompanyments of a truly oriental scene. It simply has to be seen. I put everythings in the hands of Cook's men who boarded the ship, so had no hunting of trunks, etc. The agents do everything and make tdavel much easier than it would be otherwise. We lost track of the go-basket for a while, it having been put on a luggage scow by mistake, but Cook's sent it out with our trunks.

We found pleasant quarters at the Y. M. C. A. and stayed till 2 p. m., next day, Saturday. It was fearfully hot, but fortunately they had electric fans. Myra and Bobby tried to keep cool while I went in to the business section in tht afternoon and attended to details of train accommodation to Calcutta, cabling, telegraphing, etc. In the late afternoon we went to the city again (this association being out in Indian quarter) and took a "gari" for an hours ride in the cool part of the day. This was most pleasant for Bombey is a beautiful city. It was dark when we returned through the native quarter, the streets full of people returning home from the days labor. It is simply impossible to describe these street scenes. It has to be seen to be realized. I will hope in time to send pictures which will help you to see it in a measure. The men, many of them, laborers, wear little in the way of clothes, while the women, have long, picturesque, brightly colored garments wound about the body and head. The upper class men wear a loose white garment about the legs with loose black coat much like our summer alpaca coats. But one sees every variety of dress, for there are every variety of natives in these streets.

Our night in Bombey was a forbidding introduction to India. It stayed hot and we tossed and turned, threshing about most of the night, restless and uncomfortable. But our two nights on the railway journey were very cool and a delightful change and surprise.

We left Bombey at 2 p. m. and arrived at Calcutta at 7:30 Monday a. m. It was a dirty ride but we enjoyed the scenery and found it quite comfortable as to weather. The Indian railroad train is far different from American, with nothing of the comfort and convenience of our Pullmans. We had a coupe at the end of the car. By swinging upwards the back of the seat is made the upper berth—simply a leather seat in each cast and pretty hard at best. On these seats (two and a half feet wide) you make your own bed, with bedding that you carry as part of your luggage. We used our steamer rugs with sheet inside but found it a pretty hard bed. Most English carry a heavy quilt or light mattress to go underneath. We came first class because it was the only way to be together. Ordinarily, men and women sleep together, four and five in a compartment. All missionaries go second, which is one-half the first fare.

Through mistake, Hadley expected us in the afternoon, so no one met us at the station. We went right through to 86 College street and found him, then went to Slack's apartment, where we are now. It is a very comfortable place, with airy rooms, facing a great park. Here we will stay for six weeks until afttr Mr. Mott's visit, and the student all-India conference after Christmas. Then we go to the country, sixty miles, to a small Indian mission station, where we will settle down to language study. That will begin at once here, of course, but we go to the country to be among the Indians almost exclusively. Here we are delightfully situated, with large room and bath for ourselves in the Slack's home. It is such a relief to get here in this quiet, home-like place, with good things to eat, after our knocking around so long. Frank Slack, you will remember, was a class mate at Union Seminary my first year.

Todaythe mail goes, packages at least, and we have nothing to send. Myra has time for nothing with Bobby to take care of, and now that we have an "Ayah" (Indian nurse) it is little help, for Bobby cries with her, alone. We hope he will soon get used to her, but even so, Myra is afraid to leave him much alone with her. It certainly is not an easy thing for a mother to be traveling around the world with a 14 months old boy.

The day after our arrival (Tuesday) we went on a picnic to the Botanical gardens, a beautiful park, with the Slacks and Ross and other secretaries on the occasion of the annual Y. M. C. A. outing. Met some of the college students and had a good view of the boys and college men at play. It was most enjoyable. Bobby was good all day. Yesterday I lunched with Ross Hadley and went out some two miles on a tramp, while Myra went in the late afternoon with the Slacks to the bazaar, where you get anything under the sun.

Today we must write letters and try to get something bought and sent. I begin language study right away.

The arrangement of the day, meals, etc., is much different out here, and we have to learn to fit ourselves to the new schedule. At seven a. m. we have "chota hazrie" in our room—the early breakfast with tea, toast, and little bananas. At 9 a. m. is breakfast of porridge eggs, coffee and fruit. At 2 p. m. comes "tiffin" or lunch, tea at 4:30 and dinner at 8 p. m. Often the early breakfast is served at 6:30 (before which one dresses) leaving two and a half hours for language work with the "pundit" or teacher. This means early rising, which isn't easy when you lose sleep at night as we have been doing for two months. Nothing is done in the evening, for it is nine or after before dinner is over and we ought to be in bed by ten o'clock. Evening concerts, etc., do not begin here till 9:15.

It seems at first sight as though we were eating all the time, but when we get used to the order I suppose we can get in as much work as under our three meal system. Business men have "tiffin" or tea served in their office by their servants, so lose little time.

I wish you could look in on us for awhile to see how little away from civilization we are. The extremes are strangely mixed here; for instance, it looks strange to see an Indian in his native ancient dress, with turban, driving a motor car, or as motor man on a tram. This apartment is over a large department store where most anything can be bought.

There are American dentists and doctors here and any number of fine stores of every sort just as in any English city. Things are high but they are here. Walk-Over shoes are sold here, but they are Anglicised—not real U. S. shapes and styles.

The great park (Maidon) is several miles long with fine places for taking Bobby. He will go there from 7:30 to 9 a. m. and late in the afternoon, 4:30 to 5 or 6, when it grows dark. No twilight here at all. Darkness comes qiuckly after sunset. In this park one sees herds of goats and cows and it is the gathering place for many things. Yesterday at a Mohammedan festival, we saw thousands of them massed at a prayer service, and returning from it through the native streets in great streams that filled the street.

Good bye,

Melville.

WIDOW FACES MURDER CHARGE

Brookhaven, Miss., Jan. 27.—The grand jury today took up the case of Mrs. Mattie Clements, who two weeks ago shot and killed John Mullen for alleged intimacy with her young daughter. The tragedy occurred at the home of Mrs. Clements, who is a widow. The woman claims self defense, alleging that she shot Mullen only after he had drawn a knife and threatened to kill her. Her statements in this particular are borne out by the testimony of the sheriff who found a knife tightly clasped in the dead man's hand when he arrived at the scene of the tragedy in response to a telephone call from Mrs. Clements. Public sympathy appears to be strongly on the side of the widow, who has been at liberty on a small bond since the killing.

SICK BENEFIT PLAN FOR BIG COMPANIES EXPLAINED

Dr. Alvah H. Doty Is Appointed Medical Director For Employes' Fund of American Telephone and Telegraph Company and Allied Concerns.

Dr. Alvah H.Doty, formerly health officer of the Fort of New York, has been apopinted medical director of the Employes' Benefit Fund committee of the American Telephone and Telegraph company, the Western Union Telegraph company and the Western Electric company, in connection with sick benefit plan for employes of the allied corporations.

There will be established gradually by these companies a system of medical supervision and preventive sanitation designed to preserve the health of the telephone and telegraph army. This undertaking on so large a scale, the companies having nearly 200,000 workers, inaugurates a new era in relations of employer and employe.

Theodore N. Vail, president of the American Telephone and Western Union companies, in anonuncing Dr. Doty's appointment, said:

"It is intended that the medical department shall have wide range in its activities. In addition to the usual functions of such a department it wil devise and carry out various methods of health protection known as preventative measures.

"So far as practicable we shall seek the early detection of diseases, particularly those that are communicable, notably tuberculosis and arrange for their prompt removal, care and treatment. This not only offers a far better chance for the patient's recovery, but also protects other employes.

"Preventative measures also will include sanitary conditions in offices and workshops, such as proper lighting, good air, pure water, safe plumbing and the discontinuance of articles in general use which are believed to be agents of infection. By various plain and practical methods, employes will be instructed in hygiene and sanitation, and we hope that the information thus gained wil extend to the home and to the public generally.

"Modern sanitariums know that the public health is guarded in the best manner by prevention rather than by treatment of disease after it develops.

"The measures we plan are of inestimable value, not merely in the interest of our companies, but also in public education on sanitation subjects, for our employes are everywhere in the United States, even in smallest towns.

"Supervision by the medical department over sick and injured does not necessarily mean that the companies are to furnish medical attendance for those who are disabled, but so far as possible they will aid in securing prompt and skillful treatment for employes.

"Arrangements will be made with hospitals throughout the country for prompt reception for those who may decide upon this form of treatment.

"Medical representatives will be selected to deal with the various conditions and emergencies that may arise in connection with this branch of the service.

"The various measures outlined will be carried out in a reasonable way and without undue haste, for haste often involves unnecesasry expense and with but little benefit to employes.

"This undertaking, in accord with modern sanitation, will also benefit the companies, as it is intended to do.

"It provides mutual protection and co-operation between employe and employer. It insures far better and less interrupted service and constitutes an economical factor in the interest of both parties."

QUICK RELIEF FOR RHEUMATISM.

George W. Koon, Lawton, Mich., says: "Dr. Detchon's Relief for Rheumatism has given my wife wonderful benefit for rheumatism. She could not lift hand or foot, had to be lifted for two months. She began to use of the remedy and improved rapidly. On Monday she could not move and on Wednesday she got up, dressed herself and walked out for breakfast." Sold by L. P. Allcott, druggist.

SEEKS DIVORCE FROM PLAYWRIGHT.

New York, Jan. 27.—Considerable interest in manifested in literary and theatrical circles in the suit for divorce brought by Mrs. Reaila Abel Armstrong against her husband, Paul Armstrong, the well known playwright, which came up in court today for hearing. The present action is the second of its kind brought by Mrs. Armstrong, the first having been filed in 1910 in Annapolis, her home city. The first suit was withdawn a few months later and it was rumored that the Armstrongs had come reconciled. When the present suit was entered last fall the papers were filed secretly, access to them refused and all parties declined to make any statement.

The Armstrongs were married about fifteen years ago in London. They lived in Annapolis for a time, where Mrs. Armstrong, as a talented artist and a member of the fashionable Anne Arundel Hunt club, held a desirable position in society. After her first divorce action she moved to New York. The couple have three children, who live with their mother.

Fires In Jacksonville

Monday's Courier had the foliowing:

ROOF CATCHES FIRE

"Saturday evening the roof of the residence of Newton Sargent at 350 West Court street caught fire about 6:30 o'clock, burning a small hole. The fire department was called, but a Babcock extinguisher was used by a member of the department in putting out the fire."

Tuesday's Journal tells of a fire at 302 North East street., caused by a coal oil lamp, at which a woman was badly burned. The Journal siys: "In the meanwhile the fire department was called and extinguished the fire with the chemical."

Only lack of information prevents EVERY HOME having its own Babcock. The cost is small; anybody can use it; it is always ready. There is nothing secret about it, and if you call at our office, 110 South West street, we will be glad to explain it to you fully.

Mustard's Quick Relief Without the Blister!

You remember the good old-fashioned mustard plaster.

Your mother and your grandmother used to apply it whenever you had a cold, an ache or a pain.

It burned like sixty, but it surely did the work.

Here is the old family remedy, greatly improved by science and put up in Twentieth Century Form—

The quick and blessed relief without the blister of the mustard, or the bother and messiness of the plaster.

MUSTEROLE is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. For MUSTEROLE, the oil of the highest grade of mustard is refined until it is as pure as human skill can make it.

You simply rub it on the spot where the pain is—rub it on briskly and the pain is gone.

Not a blister is left even on tender skin! Instead it has a delicious, comforting effect.

You don't have to spread MUSTEROLE on a cloth. Just apply it with the finger tips.

You don't have to bind on a cloth. MUSTEROLE is so penetrating that it goes right through the pores at once.

And there is nothing like MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsilitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion Pleurisy Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and aches of the back or joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it prevents Pneumonia).

MUSTEROLE WILL NOT BLISTER

At your druggists in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

Accept no substitute. If your druggist cannot supply you, send 25c or 50c to the Musterole Company, Cleveland, Ohio, and we will mail you a jar, postage prepaid.

ENTERTAINEE DINNER GUESTS WITH PRIZE RING BOUTS

St. Louis Republic Tells of Unusual Entertainment Miss Claudia Lasell Hockenhull Staged in Ball Room of London Home.

The St. Louis Republic Sunday had a ondon letter purporting to tell of a very unusal dinner given recently in the English capital by Miss Claudia Lasell Hockenhull formerly of Jacksonville. The dinner was followed by boxing contests which had been arranged as a surprise for the guests. The Republic printed the article under a three colum headline and with a picture of Miss Hockenhull. This is the Republic's story:

London, Jan. 25.—The very latest development in the art of entertaining is to follow up a fashionable dinner party with a boxing match. This innovation is due to an American resident in London, Miss Claudia Lasell of Jacksonville, Ill.

The other evening at her magnificent home in the North of London, she entertained twenty well-known persons, several of whom were Americans. After dinner the guests were ushered into the ballroom.

To their intense surprise it had been transformed into a prize ring complete in every particular, even the installation of the special lighting arrangements used for all the great prize fights.

The first impression that this was only to be comic representation was quickly dispelled by the appearance of seconds and trainers in their sweaters and armed with sponges, towels and water buckets.

She Introduces Fighters.

Miss Lasell, getting into the ring under the ropes, then made a little speech: "Ladies and gentlemen", she said, "I thought I would give you a little surprise tonight. We all are so tired of the ordinary after dinner dances and theatrical entertainments that I asked my brother to arrange a boxing entertainment. I now have the pleasure in introducing to you the middle weight Charlie Passy and his opponent, the Unknown."

Passy and his opponent stepped forward and shook their glove hands. Miss Lasell ducked under the ropes, the gong sounded and the fighting began.

Whatever doubts lingered as to the reality of the boxing were dispelled be fore the end of the first round. The "Unknown" almost got a knockout at the outset and took full advantage of seven seconds on the floor of the ring. He was vigorously rubbed and fanned with towels by his seconds after the bell rang and fought more cautiously for the remaining nine rounds.

By the third round the women, wearing their gorgeous evening gowns and jewels, were taking just as keen interest as the men. Every blow was followed by agitated little gasps, by "Oh's!" and "Ah's!" As each round ended there was much clapping of hands, and soon there was some mild betting, as the guests began to select their favorites.

Two light weights, Bill Lewis and Tom Danabar, were next in the ring The hostess again acted as introducer and the two men put up a pretty five round fight.

Then came the event of the evening, the heavy weights. Charles Webster and Harry Reeves. Both men were well over twelve stone. From the start neither spared himself and soon the ring was smeared with blood.

Webster tried hard for a knockout. Time after time Reeves was driven to the ropes and twice was all but counted out. By a desperate and plucky effort he managed to stay the ten rounds, despite severe punishment.

When the gong announced the end of the last round there was wild cheering from the now thoroughly excited spectators, who included many of the household servants occupying the gallery overlooking the ballroom.

Fights May Become Popular.

The evening's show was voted a splendid success. Most of the women present had never seen a glove fight before. Now several of them are arranging similiar entertainments and the idea may be expected to become all the rage.

Miss Claudia Lasell or Lasell-Hockenhull, to be strictly correct, as to her name, is one of London's most popular hostesses. For the last few years she has lived mostly on this side of the water and at one time took a keen interest in theatrical affais, producing in London the plays "Lady Tatters" and "The Sweet Girl."

She took the leading part in both of these and also in "Peggy Machree," which had such a successful run in the metropolis.

CUT THE HIGH COST OF LIVING.

W. H. Chapman, Winnebago, Neb., tells how he did it. "My two children had a very bad cough and the doctor's medecines did them no good I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and before it was all used the children were free and cured of their cough. I saved a doctor's bill for one 25c bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound." No opiates.—City Drug Store, J. A. Obermeyer.

KAISER FIFTY-FOUR YEARS OLD.

Berlin, Jan. 27.—Berlin was brilliant with flags and uniforms today on the occasion of Emperor William's fifty-fourth birthday anniversary. In the forenoon the emperor and family attended special religious services in the Castle chapel After the services, which were attended by the envoys from foreign countries, the latter tendered their congratulations.

How to Break Up a Bad Cold.

WOMANS' COLLEGE NOTES

The next number in the Artists' course will be the Pasmore Trio, which will appear Monday evening, February 3, in Music hall. The ensemble work which this trio does is considered by expects to be as nearly perfect as it is possible to produce.

The work of the new societies is progressing nicely. The Lamba Alpha Mu will have a party the 17th of February. Their open meeting will occur the 18th of March, and that of the Theta Sigma on April 21. The Academy Literary society is doing good work. Members are admitted to that organization on merit of students.

Miss Frieda Kaminer, of East St. Louis, and Miss Mary Louise Dickie, of Bunker Hill, Ill., will enter the college to begin work the second semester.

Rev. Arthur Ewert has been absent from the city for the past week in the interests of the college.

A number of the faculty will take part in the entertainments given for the benefit of the Grain Dealers' association next month. Both the music and expression departments will be represented.

A number of new courses will be offered at the beginning of the second semester, which opens Feb. 4.

On Thursday afternoon in Music hall Professor Donald Swarthout gave a very interesting analysis of the three numbers which will comprise the program to be presented Monday evening in the recital of the Messrs. Swarthout. Director Swarthout assisted in the analysis by playing over the thematic material used in the different selections and showing the different methods of treatment employed in the building up of the compositions. The analytical part of the afternon's program was preceded by two piano solos, a Nocturne in F sharp from Karganoff, played by Ruth Mattocks, and an Arabesque from Leschetizky, played by Mary Shastid.

The latest addition to the list of photographs of eminent artists who have appeared recently in Music hall is a large sized photo of Harrison Wild, the eminent Chicago musician.

The recital on last Monday evening by Madame Dimitrieff, the celebrated Russian soprano, was all that was expected and those who were fortunate enough to hear her were given a rare musical treat. Miss Louise Miller of the faculty acted in the capacity of accompanist and despite the fact that the Music through some unknown cause was delayed in getting here until the afternoon of the recital, handled the different accompaniments in splendid fashion. She was highly complimented after the recital by Madam Dimitrieff on her ability as a musician.

At a recent meeting of the College Glee club the following officers were elected: Helen Jones, president; Nina Slaten, vice-president; Majorie Grandy, secretary and treasurer. This organization is now under the direction of Director Swarthout, who is planning on a fine course of study along the lines of chorus work for the coming few months.

CITY COUNCIL HELD SESSION MONDAY MORNING

Only Business of Routine Character Transacted—Preparing Utility Franchises.

Theh city council held their regular weekly session Monday morning and little business of importance was before them for consideration. Mayor Davis presided and all the members were present. After the customary routine matters had been cared for Mr. Knollenberg made a motion that $50 which had been paid from the general fund for expense on the Franklin street pavement should be re-paid to the general fund and it was so ordered. Mr. Engel was not ready to make a report on the safety appliances asked for the Johnson street crossing of the Wabash and was granted further time.

Rev. H. H. DeWitt, pastor of the Second Baptist Church was present and stated that the church desired to make connection with the sewer and wished authority to have the work done or their own account as some of the members are competent and willing to do this work. The matter was referred to Mr. Newman with power to act.

Mr. Newman asked about the proposed franchise for the Jacksonville Light Company as to whether the company is to prepare it or the council. Mayor Davis stated that the company is preparing a franchise for submisson to the council and that gas and electric franchises are also being prepared. There were no reports from departments and the council then adjourned.

END LIVER TROUBLE WITHOUT CALOMEL

Untrustworthy Drug, Thought to Loosen the Teeth, Now Made Absolutely Unnecessary.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are the mildest but surest laative known, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. Dr. Edwards' has been calomel's uncompromising foe. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-oil-colored tablets, a rare combination of vegetable compounds mixed with olive oil. These pleasant, harmless little tablets do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel at all, but to let Olive Tablets take their place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" the clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits.

At 10c and 25c a box. "Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own."

The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

TO RELY ON INSANITY PLEA.

White Plains, N. Y., Jan. 27.—John H. McGuire was arraigned for trial today on a charge of having murdered Sereno Starrett of Rochelle eHights on October 3, last. McGuire was employed by Mr. Starrett as butler for several months and was discharged. On the night of the murder he forced his way into the Starrett residence, and, it is charged, that he shot and killed Mr. Starrett while the latter was ill in bed.

It is expected that the defense will be based upon a plea of insanity. Ever since his arrest McGuire has acted in an irrational manner. His attorney declares that he inherited insanity and it is expected that his old mother, whose home is in Tennessee, wil lappear at the trial to testify in substantiation of the insanity plea. The prosecuting attorney, on the other hand, asserts that the accused man is faking insanity. He has been examined by two prominent specialists, both of whom reported that he showed no symptoms of insanity.

It is not a substitute for corn, but a small quantity fed in connection with corn or other grains gives a balanced ration.

It is the most economical source of digestible protein known, containing twice as much protein as oil meal and five times as much as middlings, shorts, shipstuff, or alfalfa meal.

TANKAGE i recommended by all leading experiment stations.

It is packed in one-hundred-pound burlap sack, plainly marked "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD," analysis as above.

It is the ideal feed to balance rations.

What "Sure Fatten Hog Food" Tankage Does.

SPECULATION IN STOCKS AT LOW EBB

MARKET VIRTUALLY IN STATE OF SUSPENDED ANIMATION.

Fluctuations so Narrow That Record of Day's Transactions Possessed Little Significance—List Holds Steady Around Saturday's Close.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, Jan. 27.—Speculative interest was at low ebb today and the stock market was virtually in a state of suspended animation. The ticker was silent for minutes at a time and fluctuations were so narrow that the record of the day's transactions possessed little significance. Recessions among Americans in London influenced the home market at the opening, and international stocks were slightly lower. Losses were made up and during most of the day the list held steady at around Saturday's close. In the afternoon a heavier tone developed but offerings were small and the greater part of the active stocks ended the session with only fractional changes. The extreme dullness of the market during the morning was attributed to uncertainty whether the supreme court would hand down today its decision in the Minnesota rate case. There was no increase in activity later, such as, on other recent "decision days," has followed announcement from Washington that this decision would not be made known.

The extent reductions to be made in the tariff and the fate of proposed measures for enforced changes in stock market and banking methods are other questions which remain unanswered, and act as a drag on speculation. With no new incentive for trading on either side of the market operators were content for the time to do little and await a more definite lead.

There was a slightly firmer tone in the local money market and a correspondingly easier tendency in foreign exchange rates. Call money touched 36 per cent and in the time market there were loans for six months at 4½ per cent, as against a recent bid of 4 per cent.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET "SICK"

BEGINNING OF WEEK WITNESSES BUT LITTLE TRADING.

Wheat Drags Lower Most of Session —Oats All But Stagnant—Provisions Close at Best Prices of Day.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Local grain markets began the week "sick" as brokers termed it, where there is but little trade and net price changes were of the slightest. Provisions were firm, closing at the best prices of the day.

With indifferent cables, fair weather, heavy primary receipts no demand for export and domestic spot in the doldrums, wheat dragged lower most of the session. Toward the end shorts covered on the visible decrease and because they were easy as to the Balkan situation and the market recovered to Saturday's closing level. May closed ¼c under Saturday.

Oats were all but stagnant and tone heavy with corn and on the poor demand for spot. The sample market was ¼c off. What looked like investment buying advanced provision prices 7½@20c, although hogs at the yards were easier. Packers were credited with moderate sales.

The Return of Blood Eruptions

No Reason Why Anyone Should Suffer With Such a Disheartening Experience.

No case of contagious blood poison is ever cured until the last particle of the virus has been removed from the circulation. The least taint left in the blood will, sooner or later, cause a fresh outbreak of the trouble, with all its hideous and destructive symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper colored splotches, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc. No other medicine so surely cures contagious blood poison as S. S. S. It goes down into the blood and steadily and surely drives out every particle of the infection. It absolutely and perfectly purifies the blood, and leaves this vital fluid as fresh, rich and healthy as it was before the destructive virus of contagious blood poison entered the circulation. S. S. S. quickly takes effect on the blood, and gradually the symptoms disappear, the health is improved, the skin cleared of all spots, sores and other blemishes, the hair stops coming out, the mouth and throat heal and when S. S. S. has cleansed the system of the poison no trace of the disease is left. S. S. STATE NEWS.

Clips Horses With Motorcycle.—Otis Myers, who is training the fast pacer, Wiley Custer, and several other promising horses at the Decatur tracks, has found a new use for his motorcycle. Myers discovered last week that he could attach his clipping machine to the motorcycle engine, and now he is clipping all his horses by motorcycle power.

Sales at Poultry Show.—Probably during the entire week $1,500 worth of birds changed hands at the Decatur poultry show. These birds were sold to exhibitors, to private individuals and to breeding companies. The sale of birds at the poultry show this year was larger and better than it has ever been before. This was due to the fact that the show was better than it has ever been before.

Horse and Mule Sale.—In Decatur recently there was a sale of 54 horses and mules; a team of mules brought $530; a five year old grey horse, $207.50; a span of good mules brought $462.50; a brown horse $252.50; another $245; a span of white horses $455; a span of blacks, $465; a brown mare, $320; a pair of brown horses $407.50. These were among the best prices realized.

Was in General Moore's Regiment—James Pollock of Fort Dodge, Kan. died Saturday morning.

He was a Union soldier of company K, 115th Illinois Volunteers, General Moore's regiment of Decatur. He served until the close of the war and was mustered out in June 1885. In 1887 he moved to Kansas and resided there until his death. He was born Oct. 6, 1843, in the state of Ohio.

"Comps" His Reward for Honesty—Charles Reynolds, a street car conductor of Peoria turned into the company a purse containing $861 which the wife of a wealthy merchant had lost. He received his reward—four complimentaary tickets to a concert of the Amateur club at the First Methodist Episcopal church.

In Memory of Lincoln—The memory of Illinois' most illustrious son is to be fittingly observed at the Coliseum at Peoria on the evening of Feb. 10.

The "piece de resistanace" of the evening, is the oration on Abraham Lincoln by Dr. M. L. Pontius of the Central Christian church. That this man is a real oratod and a powerful speaker is known to all who have heard him. His oration on Abraham Lincoln is his most pretensious effort and has won him much acclaim in the east where he attained considerable distinction as an after-dinner speaker. This Lincoln day banquet will be the occasion of its delivery in the middle west, and great things are expected of Mr. Pontius on this occasion.

Will Submit the Question to Voters..The opening of theatres on Sunday having been held a question of public policy, Bloomington election commissioners to day prepared to submit the proposition to the voters at the spring election. Nearly 2,000 persons who want Sunday amusements signed a petition asking for a public expression on the question.

Co-Eds' Feet Found Imperfect—Three hundred feet belonging to 150 co-eds of the University of Illinois have been examined in an experiment and only two of them were pronounced perfect. The blame was put on shoes.

Decrease of 9 Per Cent in Wabash Accidents—Claim agent Winston said:

"On the Wabash system, the safety organization has been in working order, only since July 1, 1912. It has hardly had a fair show. We have only been able so far to reach the shop and car men and others working about terminals and large stations, but have hardly reached the train and enginemen, as their work prevents us from getting them together in any large numbers. Statistics for the six months ending December 31, 1912, as compared with the same period in 1911, show an average reduction in accidental injuries in all departments of the hazardous service, excepting track men, of little more than 9 per cent, and this showing is in the face of an increase in gross revenue of more than $1,600,000, and an increase in working force of more than 3,000 employes over the same period of 1911.

Proper Expression of Appreciation.

A compliment should be as quickly given for good goods and good service as a kick for defective goods and poor service. Most people realize this. That is why so many have written to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy telling of remarkable cures of coughs and colds it has effected, and expressing their appreciation of the good qualities of this well known remedy. For sale by all dealers.

DISCUSS WAGE DEMAND.

Philadelphia, Jan. 27.—A committee representing the conductors and trainmen of the Pennsylvania railroad conferred with the general manager here today on the subject of the wage demands made last year. The demands call for an average increase of about ten per cent over the present scale of wages.

HINTS FOR THE HOUSEKEEPERS.

Keep Foley's Honey and Tar Compound always on hand, and you can quickly head off a cold by its prompt use. It contains no opiates heals and soothes the inflamed air passages, stops the cough, and may save a "big doctor's bill. In the yellow package.—City Drug Store, J. A. Obermeyer.

HAS EARLY CHICKENS.

Thomas Duffner, the well known tailor, holds the record for early chickens. Out of forty eggs set he got thirty-eight chicks. On Jan. 10 out of twelve eggs were hatched eleven; on Jan. 12, the second hatching, every egg was productive, adding fourteen more; Jan. 20, thirteen were hatched out of fourteen eggs. Mr. Duffner keeps the Barred Rock breed and says that he has been getting eggs all winter and that his poultry business is one hundred per cent good.

SANGAMON COUNTY MAY HAVE FARM EXPERT EMPLOYED

Bill Now Before Illinois Legislature Contemplates State Aid in Such Work.

Springfield News:—Appointment of a soil expert to instruct farmers of Sangamon county in the best methods of producing full crops and at the same time improving the productiveness of their land is a question that is beginning to awaken much interest among men with advanced ideas on agriculture. Four Illinois counties already enjoy the services of such men and find them profitable. They are Kankakee, Livingston, McHenry and DeKalb counties.

Teachings of the University of Illinois on the subjects of crop improvement and soil conservation are propagated in these four counties by men hired by an association of farmers, business men, bankers, editors and others interested in agriculture. Farmers who have worked under their instruction say the plan pays direct profits in increased crops, better stock and decreased waste in farm administration.

To Seek Legislation.

A bill providing that boards of supervisors may appropriate money for the establishment of farm demonstration departments is to be introduced in the legislature at its present session. Up to the present time, such offices are entirely dependent for support upon the associations which have established them. Bert Ball, secretary of the crop improvement committee of the Chicago board of trade, is the custodian of a fund donated by Mr. Rosenwald of the Sears-Roebuck company for such work. He is authorized to supply $1,000 to any county association which takes up the plan.

The United States department of agriculture also maintains a fund from which between $1,000 and $1,200 a year will be paid towards the support of such a movement in any county. The payment is dependent, however, upon certain conditions imposed by the department which vary from the teachings of the University of Illinois. For this reason, this fund will probably not be drawn upon when the plan is placed in operation here.

Still Another Fund.

A bill now before the United States senate, known as the Lever bill, provides for the payment of funds for this purpose through state colleges of agriculture. It has been passed and is favored by the president. If it becomes a law, the farm demonstration project will have received an important impetus.

A FATEFUL HOUR.

Such is the heading in a recent article concerning Goucher college in Baltimore, Md., where the citizens, the alumnae and students are united in a campaign to wake up the vicinity to the danger the college is in because of lack of funds to maintain current expenses.

The indebtedness of Goucher college is half a million of dollars, which the interest accruing, and a deficit of $25,000 a year in maintenance, is a discouraging state of affairs, yet the people of Baltimore are confidently expecting to meet all obligations and place the college on a secure foundation.

Before Goucher college was founded, the Methodist church established in America not less than forty institutions for the advanced education of women which are not living today. Some of these came into being anterior to the founding of the half dozen best known colleges for women. They had a precarious existence and slipped into oblivion for lack of money, which means a lack of interest on the part of the people in the communities where the schools were located. There are consequently alumnae who have no alma mater.

All this bears an intimate relation to the situation and the movement at the Woman's college in Jacksonville. This is one of the earliest founded of the colleges referred to above, and is one of the very few which have survived the testing years.

Jacksonville is fortunate that notwithstanding the loss of two of its schools for girls, the Woman's college lives, and not only lives, but has been growing up and up until the opportunity it now faces is one that brings increased reputation to the college, additional fame to the city.

To fail in securing the endowment now sought, would mean loss of opportunity for this community to have a high grade woman's college.

A mean stuffy cold, with hoarse wheezy breathing is just the kind that runs into bronchitis or pneumonia. Don't trifle with such serious conditions but take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound promptly. Quick and beneficial results are just what you can expect from this great medicine. It soothes and heals the inflamed air passages. It stops the hoarse racking cough.—City Drug Store, J. A. Obermeyer.

LONG SEARCH FOR MOTHER REWARDED

MRS. T. P. FISHER IS LOCATED AT JOPLIN, MO.

Mother of Mrs. Pansy Hastings Lesh, Who is to Share in Estate of the Late W. T. Luttrell, Receives News of Property and of Her Lost Daughter.

Confession to police authorities in Los Angeles, Calif., several months ago by Mrs. Pansy Hastings Lesh, that she had murdered two women in Pettis county, Missouri, in 1904, has resulted in the finding of her mother, Mrs. T. P. Fisher, at Joplin, Mo., for whom relatives have been searching for a long time, as she is one of the heirs of the estate of the late W. T. Luttrell of Franklin. Although the trial of Mrs. Lesh consumed a week at Sedalia, Mo., the mother, who has been making her home with Theodore Hastings, father of her first husband, Hiram Hastings, at Joplin, Mo., did not know that the party on trial for her life was her own child.

The finding of Mrs. Fisher came about in this manner. About a week ago Theodore Hastings was reading in a Joplin paper about the trial and happened to notice the name of Mrs. Ellen Hamilton of Morgan county, Illinois. He wrote a letter to Jacksonville directing it to the postmaster, asking if such a person lived here who was related to the Luttrell family. The letter was referred to Scott P. Carter, as Mrs. Lesh, who stayed at the Scott home for a few days after the trial, is a second cousin of Mrs. Carter. Mr. Carter in turn answered the letter and also told that since the death of Mr. Luttrell that the relatives had been searching for the lost mother. Yesterday a letter was received by Mrs. Hamilton from Mrs. Fisher, stating that she was the one whom they sought and that she would come to Jacksonville at an early date.

Mrs. Fisher did not say a word about her second husband, nor how long she had been married. According to a story from Mrs. Hamilton, the mother left her child and husband in Jacksonville when the child was only 7 years of age and although Mrs. Lesh is now 24 years of age, nothing has ever been heard of the mother until yesterday. She is now close to fifty years of age and in her letter states that she has very poor health.

The nearly a quarter of a century separation of mother and daughter, the many happenings in the life of both and the coming reunion of the two, when each thought the other dead, rivals the strangest story of fiction. Within a few months the death of Mr. W. T. Luttrell, uncle of Mrs. Fisher, May 5, 1912, at Franklin, came the story of the confession of Mrs. Lesh at Los Angeles, Calif., that she had poisoned Mrs. Quaintance in June, 1904, at Green Ridge, Mo., and later had caused the death of Mrs. Coe of Pettis county, Missouri. Relatives here had not known of the whereabouts of the girl since her father took her from Jacksonville when she was a mere child, until they read the story of the Associated Press in the Journal last November. And so as the result of Mrs. Lesh being brought back to Sedalia, Mo., to face trial, in which she was freed of all charges, the news finally reached the mother of her daughter.

The estate left by Mr. Luttrell could not be fully settled until all the heirs had been located. He leaves one sister, Mrs. Ellen Hamilton of this city, and Mrs. J. M. Wyatt and J. M. Luttrell, sister and brother of Springfield. Mrs. Fisher is the only surviving daughter of the late J. M. Luttrell. All Mrs. Fisher will have to do is to establish her relationship and the money is ready to pass into her hands.

After the trial in Sedalia, Mo., Mrs. Lesh came here for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott P. Carter. She stated that while very young she remembered several things about her mother and still entertained a hope that some day she would find her. She said that she intended to return to Los Angeles and there get her little son Robert and give him her devotion. She made the statement "that money was no consideration for her, if she could only find her lost mother." There is not much doubt now that before many days the two will be united and again renew that love which never dies.

Dr. Sipes has moved his residence and office from 340 East State to 209 East College street.

A FINE DISCOURSE.

Sunday night Rev. R. O. Post, D. D., pastor of the Congregational church of this city, began a series of discourses on "Some leaders in the kingdom at home and abroad."

The first character was that of Raymond Lull, the Crusader. The lessons drawn from the life of that noble man who lived so many years ago and left such a grand record, were striking, impressive and useful. The sermon showed careful and painstaking investigation and study of the subject and was heard with close attention throughout.

Manager Luttrell of the Majestic has engaged as pianist Prof. H. H. Lewis, a picture player of wide experience and great talent. Prof. Lewis will certainly prove a great drawing card at the Majestic as he plays with splendid ability and fine distinction. He does not simply play some popular song or melody but the music he uses is something which fits in with the pictures as they are shown and gives life and action to them. If the picture is fast and funny the music accords and if it be sad or pathetic so are the notes from the piano. Be sure to hear Mr. Lewis play.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY LECTURE COURSE

"The Land of the Pyramids and the Sphinx" Will be Subject Tonight by Miss Neville.

The public library lecture course beings this evening at 7:30. Stereopticon views which Miss Neville has herself collected will add interest to her talk upon modern Egypt.

The following will be entertaining reading for persons who care for books of travel and history:

Breasted—History of Egypt. This is an attractive and finely illustrated book founded upon recent original researches by the author who is professor of Egyptology and oriental history in the University of Chicago.

Brugsch—Egypt Under the Pharaohs. A collection of what the monuments and books tell of the best of that most remarkable land and people on the banks of the Nile. In spite of all that has perished, the last thirty years have brought to light an unexpected wealth of new discoveries. The author is conservator of the Cairo Museum.

Cromer—Modern Egypt 2v. "The charm of these volumes is that the work is recounted by one who was a large part of that which he describes and whose grasp and penetration as a writer are so evidently the product of his great qualities as an administrator." Nation.

Edwards—Pharaohs, Fellahs and Explorers. "Miss Edwards is the best delineator Egypt ever had. The Saturday review thinks 'No other writer did so much to render Egypt popular.' Hers was pre-eminently the role of interpreter."

Erman—Life in Ancient Egypt. This book has fascinating chapters on family life, recreation, dress, customs and industries which present the more "human" side of the ancient life. Well illustrated.

Gordon, Lady Duff—Letters From Egypt. "These were not written for the public eye but for two members of her own family and so they are entirely free from constraint and do not pretend to high literary merit, although they are written in a singularly captivating and vigorous English style. Her popularity with the Copts enabled her to obtain many glimpses of a people who are peculiarly shy, and of whom little is known even by those who are learned in all the wisdom of Egypt. We must refer the curious in such matters to this book." Eclectic.

Maspero—Life in Ancient Egypt and Assyria. An account of the daily life of the people in the time of Rameses II, 14th century B. C., and of Assurbanipal, 7th century B. C.

Penfield—Present Day Egypt—"A collection of impressions, appreciations, facts, opinions and descriptions arranged in a somewhat desultory fashion. He gives us the Egypt of the tourist but at all events the volume is worthy of being widely read." Dial.

Warner—My Winter on the Nile. "A book with vivid color, full of brilliant bits of description. It has a great store of information and the scenery is done in a masterly way. The people we meet are real flesh and blood; and all the incidents of the voyage are as clear as the pictures in one's own memory. These are great and positive merits." Library of literary criticism.

SUFFRAGETTES START TROUBLE IN ENGLAND

WOMEN BELIEVE POLITICIANS HAVE PLAYED TRICK UPON THEM

Hold Heated Meeting in London and Announce That They Will Do As Much Damage to Property As Possible.

London, Jan. 27.—England is on the brink of another campaign by the suffragettes in comparison with which former outbreaks of the militant women will appear insignificant. Tonight 2,000 policemen were engaged in dispersing huge crowds gathered near the parliament buildings, shopkeepers were boarding up show windows and excited women were making incendiary speeches in several halls.

The women believe that the politicians have played a carefully studied trick upon them and the decision of the government to drop the franchise bill is likely to lead to serious consequences.

In the house of commons today, the speaker, the Right. Hon. James William Lowther, in response to an inquiry by the prime minister, announced that if any of the amendments to the franchise bill giving women the vote should be adopted he would be obliged to rule that they made it substantially a new bill, which would compel its withdrawal.

The suffragettes held heated meetings tonight. Mrs. Emaline Pankhurst and other leaders denounced both the enemies and supporters of suffrage in the cabinet for their treachery. They declared an end of the truce which the women had observed while awaiting parliaments action on the bill.

Will Damage as Much as Possible.

"Deeds, not words,' was the motto displayed above the platform where Mrs. Pankhurst spoke. She asserted that the women would consider human life sacred, but would do as much damage to property as possible.

Some of her lieutenants, however, advocated the smashing of both property and heads. Several women were arrested tonight, some of whom declined to give their names. One, believed to be Miss Slyvia Pankhurst was captured in St. Stephens hall leading to the house of commons, where she was making a determined attack on a large painting.

All the Tone Quality of the $200 Instruments in this one at $59

which is the spot cash price, but which includes an outfit of 12 double disc records (24 selections).

And you can pay for it at the rate of $5 a month

The Offer

We agree to deliver to any address in this city one of these Grafonolas, together with an assortment of 12 double-disc records (24 selections) to be selected by us, or by you if you prefer.

The machine and the records will be sent on two days' free trial to any home in the city.

So confident are we that the instrument will please even the most critical, that we agree to refund all money paid by any purchaser who may not in every way be satisfied with the instrument.

We do this because we intend either to place a Grafonola in every home in the city or at least give every house holder in the city an opportunity to own one.

THE INSTRUMENT

This beautiful Grafonola "Favorite", the first instrument of the latest improved type to be offered at anything like its price, is probably the best that its price will ever buy. It seems pretty clear that the limit has been reached. As a musical instrument, it is all any musical instrument can be and all that those costing $200 can claim to be.

The cabinet is built of the choicest mahogany (or of beautiful quarter-sawn oak) polished like the costliest piano.

The "Favorite" plays any size of record—three at one winding, and can be rewound while running, the motor being a powerful triple-spring drive, absolutely silent and always positive and reliable. The tone arm leads the sound wave from the reproducer into the sound chamber, where it is amplified and poured out through the front, subject o reduction in volume by the partial or complete closing of the double doors. The start and stop lever is combined with a speed regulator lever all in handy reach. The turn able stands above the top of the cabinet when the lid is raised, admitting easy access to the record and needle.

THE RECORDS

The outfit of records we have selected from the best selling and most popular of all classes and includes are famous Sexette from "Lucia" and equally famous Quartette from "Rigoletto", which ought to be extremely interesting to any of your own selection of records machines and have paid $13 for those two selections alone. You are at liberty to make your own selection of records if you prefer.

In addition to those 24 selections, we will give you, free, one of our "Demonstration" double disc records, which everybody admits is worth at least sixty cents of any man's money. All of these records are guaranteed to be superior to all others in tone, in surface and in durability.

They will outwear any other make of records almost two to one.

We have other Grafonolas from $25 to $200
